If you are out of custody, you must register within 3 business days of being sentenced.

If you are in custody, you must register within 3 business days from the time of your release.

If you change your residence within a county, you must provide, by certified mail, with return receipt requested, or in person, signed written notice of your change of residence to the county sheriff within 3 business days of moving.

If you change your residence to a new county within this state, you must register with the sheriff of the county of your new residence within 3 business days of moving. In addition, you must provide, by certified mail, with return receipt requested, or in person, signed written notice of your change of address to the sheriff of the county where you last registered within 3 business days of moving.

If you plan to attend or work at a public or private school or institution of higher education in Washington, you are required to notify the county sheriff for the county of your residence within 3 business days prior to arriving at the school to work or attend classes. If you change schools, you must notify the sheriff within 3 business days prior to arriving to attend the new school.

If you lack a fixed residence, you are required to register as homeless. You must also report in person to the sheriff of the county where you registered on a weekly basis. You must keep an accurate accounting of where you stay during the week and provide it to the county sheriff upon request. If you are on probation or JRA parole and lack a fixed residence, you must register in the county where you are being supervised. If you enter a different county and stay there for more than 24 hours, you will be required to register in the new county within 3 business days.

If you leave the state following your sentencing or release from custody but later move back to Washington, you must register within 3 business days after returning to this state.

If you move to a new state, you must register with the new state within 3 business days after establishing residence. You must also send written notice, within 3 business days of moving to the new state, to the county sheriff with whom you last registered in Washington State.

If you are not a resident of Washington, but attend school, are employed, or carry on a vocation in the State of Washington, you must register with the county sheriff for the county where your school, place of employment, or vocation is located.

Your duty to register does not end until you have obtained a court order specifically relieving you of the duty to register or you have been informed in writing by the sheriff's office that your duty to register has ended. Your duty to register DOES NOT end when your juvenile probation or JRA parole ends.

The King County Sheriff's Office sex offender registration desk is located on the first floor of the King County Courthouse- 516 3rd Avenue, Seattle, WA.
