

2012 Benefit Costs for Deputy Sheriffs

King County

Benefits, Payroll and
Retirement Operations

As a deputy sheriff, you receive county-paid medical, dental and vision coverage for you and your eligible dependents, basic life insurance for you and your eligible dependents, and basic accidental death and dismemberment (AD&D) insurance for you. You may purchase supplemental life insurance for yourself in an amount equal to your base annual salary, less $6,000. The 2012 rate for this coverage is shown below.

Supplemental life insurance

The 2012 monthly rate for this supplemental life insurance is $0.321/$1,000 compared with $0.283/$1,000 in 2011.

If your base annual salary is $50,000, you're eligible to purchase $$50,000 - $6,000 = $44,000$ of supplemental life insurance. The cost is $$.321 \times 44 = \14.12 per month.
