

King County

Cross-Agency Systems Training

a FREE introduction to public systems serving King County children

Friday, May 18, 2012
Friday, November 9, 2012

8:15am-4:15pm

King County Chinook Building, conference room 121/123
401 5th Avenue (at Jefferson Street), downtown Seattle

The Cross-Agency Systems Training (CAST) is a FREE overview of local social service systems serving children and youth. The training is designed for social service personnel and families.

CAST attendees will learn:

- Whom each system serves
- Goals of current programs
- Services available to consumers
- How to access services

Systems represented:

- Mental health
- Substance abuse
- Crisis services
- Child welfare
- Parent supports
- Developmental disabilities
- Special education
- Juvenile justice
- Public health
- Public financial assistance

Registration begins at 8:00am. There is no cost to attendees. Coffee and a.m. snacks are provided, but lunch is on your own.

Sign language, interpretation services, and/or materials in alternate formats are available if requested with sufficient notice.

The building is fully accessible, and is served by many buses and trains. Pay parking is also available in the area.

Please register in advance, and plan to attend the full day of training.

To register, contact Melisande Noe, phone 206-263-8987, TTY 206-205-0569, email melisande.noe@kingcounty.gov.

Any other questions about the training should be directed to Deborah Stake, phone 206-263-8950 or email deborah.stake@kingcounty.gov.