About Kids Plus

- Kids Plus is a program that focuses on the healthcare of children experiencing homelessness. It also helps to address any barriers to housing for the family.

- The family has access to a multi-disciplinary team of: nursing, social work, chemical dependency, housing and eligibility specialists.

- Support specialists can travel anywhere in King County and continue working with families for as long as it takes to obtain permanent housing and 6 months thereafter.
Kids Plus (formerly Pathways Home) provides assistance for children and their families experiencing homelessness. It provides support from a multi-disciplinary team of nursing, social work, chemical dependency, housing and eligibility specialists during times of transition.

Healthcare Support

- Provides coordination of care for children and their families experiencing health issues
- Provides linkages to medical care; including pediatric, prenatal care, mental health and specialty care
- Provides information about growth, development, preventive care and chronic health conditions
- Provides referrals to parenting classes, WIC and other family programs

Social Support

- Provides assistance with linkages to transportation needs
- Provides assistance with applying for medical insurance and disability
- Provides assistance with entry into schools and childcare centers including assistance with securing transportation and paperwork
- Provides supplemental school clothing and supplies for children

Eligibility

- Families must be residing in King County and currently homeless upon entry into program (e.g. staying in shelter or street, cannot be doubled up)
- The household must include at least one child under 18 years old (does include temporary out of home custody)
- Kids Plus does not operate housing or provide housing, we are skilled, though, in assisting families in getting families back into housing
- The family must be willing to meet with service providers on a regular basis and the program is voluntary
