

Have a say about proposed route changes coming this fall

In November 2011, Metro asked the public to comment on suggested service changes related to the start of the RapidRide C Line (West Seattle to downtown Seattle) and D Line (Ballard/Uptown to downtown Seattle) in September 2012. Metro will be offering a revised service change proposal for public review in early February that reflects feedback we've heard.

Routes 26, 28X, 31, 48X, 355X, 773, and 775 were previously considered for revision but as a result of public feedback, they will remain unchanged for the time being.
