

King County

Metropolitan King County Council

RECOGNITION

WHEREAS, Ray and Tove Burhen have long been the heart and soul of Duvall and they have fostered a warm and inviting community; and

WHEREAS, they were named the Grand Marshalls of the 2013 53rd Annual Duvall Days Festival Parade, to honor them for leading and teaching by example and positively impacting the City of Duvall; and

WHEREAS, they have been responsible for preserving much of the local history, both by collecting historical artifacts and by writing books on local history; and

WHEREAS, they have also been frequent visitors to City Hall to advocate for the needs of community members; and

WHEREAS, they preserved and donated the town's historic train depot to the City of Duvall; and

WHEREAS, they were instrumental in saving the Dougherty House, which is now a King County Historical Landmark, preserving it for future generations;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kathy Lambert, Metropolitan King County Council Councilmember, hereby recognize and honor

for successfully championing the City of Duvall and preserving its history for future generations and encourage all residents to join in celebrating their many contributions to Duvall and its residents.

DATED this fifteenth day of January, 2015.

Kathy Lambert
Councilmember, District Three
