To the Honorable Judge of the King County Juvenile Court, Seattle, Washington.

We hereby submit a report covering the activities of the King County Juvenile Court for the years 1948 - 1949 and 1950. There was a total of 3670 cases referred in 1948 - 3978 in 1949 and 3837 in 1950. In order to show the general trend we list the number of referrals each year for the last ten years.

1941	2717
1942	2792
1943	3118
1944	3175
1945	3634
1946	3581
1947	3307
1948	3670
1949	3978
1950	3837

The four highest reasons for referral are "Runaways", "Auto Theft", "Other Stealing" and "Carelessness and Mischief" with "Burglary", "Use of Liquor" and "Sex Offenses" accounting for many more of the delinquent referrals. In the dependent category the highest number of children were referred for "Injurious Living Conditions", "Determination of Custody" and "Permanent Custody for Adoption".

TRAFFIC

There were nearly twice as many juvenile traffic violations in 1949 than in 1948 and 31 less in 1950 than in 1949. These cases were handled by a Probation Officer of the Court, informally, and were not on the Court calendar. In addition there were 13 cases in 1948, 23 cases in 1949 and 20 cases in 1950 which were formal cases before the Judge, and which do appear in the delinquency count.

COLLECTIONS

Collections for the support of children outside their own homes amounted to $43,076.60 in 1948, $42,269.35 in 1949 and $35,992.01 in 1950, which is much less than the peak year of 1945 when we collected some $58,000.00.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Adhering to the policy of the Court offenses were counted for statistical purposes and the same child may have been counted more than once. The table on the following page will show the number of new, old, recurrent and reappearance cases.

A new case is one referred to the Court for the first time.

An old case is one known previous to the current year.

A recurrent case is one that has come to the Courts' attention previously during the current year, and which has been adjusted or closed in the belief that a satisfactory plan has been worked out.

A reappearance is a new offense while the child is under the supervision of an officer of the Court.

A report in detail follows:

Respectfully submitted,

PHILLIP GREEN

OFFICIAL HEARINGS AND ORDERS BY THE JUDGE	1948	1949	1950
	1699	1539	1541

By the tables in this report we are endeavoring to show the situation which brought the children to the Court. These children are divided into two groups:

- 1 - DELINQUENTS - Those children alleged to have violated the laws of the community.
- 2 - DEPENDENTS - Those children in need of the care and protection of the Court.

All children's cases require the most careful investigation, study and planning and dispositions depend entirely upon what appears to be the best plan for their welfare.

Whether or not a case is official (comes before the Judge) depends on the plan worked out between the parents, the officer, and the child. Official cases may be either delinquent or dependent. Placements may be made by agreement between agencies unofficially, but all commitments to institutions and many placements are made by official order.

Within the dependency group are included "Permanent Custody with Permission to Adopt", "Letter Inquiries", "Guardianship to Permit Enlistment in the United States Service", "Petitions for admittance to Custodial Schools", and "Service on Closed Cases". These cases, while they do not require a great deal of casework service do require much time of the staff and of the Judge.

 "Other Reasons" include cases reported for minor delinquencies and remandations from other agencies.

Many of these cases have been known to the Court previous to the current year, and many have been in the Court more than once during the year, but each offense is treated with the same careful consideration and the plan adopted that appears best under all circumstances.

Whenever available the Court Officers use Clinical services including psychiatric studies and psychological testing in making their recommendations to the Judge, but only a limited number of the children can have the benefit of such services.

Dispositions in the above table are those tabulated at the end of each month and consequently are those made by the "Intake Department". The cases assigned to Probation Officers require more investigation and interviewing time than can be done by the Intake Department and are often carried over long periods before a satisfactory plan can be formulated.

Because statistics are compiled monthly the number of "pending Cases" is a total of those pending at the end of each month. Most of these cases are absorbed in the following month and at the end of the year only a few cases are left awaiting disposition.

The entire count of Dependency had not been tabulated, but only those cases where the Department had sufficient contact to obtain full information. These cases are represented in the first four "Reasons for Referral."

Tabulations in the following tables relate only to the first four categories shown above.

Incomplete tabulations are - Commitments to Custodial Schools, Orders of Permanent Custody for the purpose of adoption, Shelter, Services on Closed Cases, Letter inquiries and Miscellaneous services. Other agencies have full information in their records regarding such cases and as Court contact with this type of case may be very slight and Court services are to another agency rather than to an individual, full information was not deemed essential.

As explained on a previous page, statistics are tabulated at the end of each month and "Pending cases" are absorbed in the following month's dispositions.

All dispositions except those assigned to Probation Officers are made by the Intake Officers. The final dispositions cannot be tabulated in this report as the cases assigned to Probation Officers may be supervised for months and sometimes years, depending entirely upon the individual problems which brought the children to the Court.

DETENTION HOME

And

BOYS' AND GIRLS' ANNEXES

The Juvenile Court was moved from 200 Broadway to 905 Jefferson Street in January, 1949 because the building had to be partially razed to permit the construction of a main arterial highway. The present building consists of three floors and a complete basement. The first floor is used for administrative purposes, the second houses the Girls' facilities, the Detention Office and the Courtroom. On the third floor are the Boys' quarters, the Clinic and Schoolroom. There is a recreation room in the basement for the children beside laundry facilities, storage space, etc.

It is possible to care for approximately thirty boys and girls on their respective floors and there is a staff of 8 attendants, a school teacher, and a recreation supervisor to carry on the detention home program for 618 children in 1948, 664 in 1949 and 714 in 1950.

The Boys' Annex is located at 605 County-City Building and has a normal capacity for 26 boys but at times it has been necessary to care for as many as forty. This Annex was designed as a temporary detention facility to care for the boys who are too experienced to be cared for in the Detention Home. The Annex maintains a 24-hour schedule with men attendants working eight-hour shifts. During 1948, there were 768 boys cared for in the annex and 873 in 1949 and 879 in 1950.

The Girls' Annex is located at 1002 County-City Building. This facility was designed for older girls and is supervised 24-hours a day by a staff of women who work in eight-hour shifts. The normal capacity is 24 girls and has not exceeded 30. During 1948, 346 girls were cared for; in 1949 there were 357 and in 1950 there were 362.

Meals for the Annexes are supplied from the Jail kitchen and are brought to the facility in steam tables. The Annexes supply their own dishes and the children assist in the dish-washing and general cleaning under supervision.

DETENTION

A staff physician and nurse call at each facility two days each week and physical examinations are made routinely. Special examinations are made upon request of the officers in charge of the children. Medical reports and recommendations are furnished by the doctor and laboratory tests are made by the City Health Clinic. Reports in writing are available.

CHILDREN UNDER SUPERVISION

On January 1, 1948, there were 1088 cases under the supervision of the fifteen Probation Officers of the Court. During the year, 1963 cases were assigned and 1868 cases were completed and closed.

On January 1, 1949, the number of cases under supervision were 958 and during the year 1601 cases were assigned to Probation Officers and 1597 were completed and closed.

On January 1, 1950, there were 901 cases being supervised by Court Officers and during the year 1720 cases were assigned, 1450 closed and at the end of the year 1045 cases were being supervised.

These cases may be either delinquent or dependent and remain under supervision for various lengths of time. Some children need only plans for temporary care; some need placement with other agencies and others need help from their "caseworker" over a long period of time.

Each officer keeps a confidential chronological record of their cases. This information is available to the Court and to other agencies or individuals working with the family when it is for the best interest of the child that they should have access to the records.
