

King County

Metro Fares Advisory Group Workshop #3

MEETING AGENDA

May 18, 2017

King Street Center

DOT Director's Office Conference Room

201 South Jackson Street, Seattle

3:00 – 5:00 p.m.

Meeting purpose:

- Provide an update on the planning process, next steps, and involvement of advisory group in the process
- Review how we went from five to two options, gather final feedback on fare options under consideration
- Review current efforts to make transit affordable; gather feedback on what's effective, who we are missing, what can be improved

3:00 p.m. Welcome and introductions

DeAnna Martin, Public & Employee Engagement Manager, King County Metro
Chris O'Claire, Assistant General Manager of Planning and Customer Services, King County Metro

3:15 p.m. How Metro went from five to two options – analysis, final feedback

Jana Demas, Supervisor of Strategic Planning, King County Metro
DeAnna Martin, Public & Employee Engagement Manager, King County Metro

4:00 p.m. Transit affordability – current and planned efforts, feedback

Matt Hansen, Manager of Customer Communication, King County Metro
DeAnna Martin, Public & Employee Engagement Manager, King County Metro
Penny Lara, Transportation Planner in Market Development, King County Metro

4:45 p.m. Next steps

DeAnna Martin, Public & Employee Engagement Manager, King County Metro

5:00 p.m. Adjourn

Group Conversation Guidelines

Be present

Try on new ideas, perspectives

It's okay to disagree

Step up, step back

Practice self-awareness

Check out assumptions

Practice “both/and” thinking

Intent is different from impact

Listen deeply

Speak from the “I”