1. Welcome/Let's Connect. The meeting was called to order at 12:35 p.m. by Co-Chair Sili Savusa who then turned the floor over to Consultant Ann Macfarlane of Jurassic Parliament to guide meeting participants in an icebreaker exercise. Ann Macfarlane also announced that this was her last meeting and she gave each member a copy of the book she co-authored, Mastering Council Meetings; A Guidebook for Elected Officials and Local Governments.
2. Review of Minutes. The committee adopted the minutes from June 23, 2017, by acclamation.
3. Foundational Documents for Review and Adoption. With special appreciation to Committee Members David Baker, Liz Campbell, Tamika Moss, and Mia Gregerson, for their contributions on said documents, Consultant Ann Macfarlane guided the Committee through the discussion of the modified Committee's foundational documents:
 - Bylaws
 - Position Description for Committee Member & Nominating Next Steps
 - Proposed Committee Ordinance
4. Community Outreach.

- OLEO Director Deborah Jacobs provided the committee with an overview of both OLEO and Committee activities since last Committee meeting.
- Deborah presented a copy of OLEO 2016 Annual Report, not to be further disseminated until the final formal version is printed.
- Deborah initiated a discussion about the possibility of the committee creating a candidate questionnaire for candidates running for Sheriff, the results of which could be posted to the OLEO website and Facebook. The idea would be to ask questions about civilian oversight and issues of importance to the public. All members supported the idea. Committee members Liz Campbell, Tamika Moss and Reverend Steve Baber agreed to work on possible questions.

5. Contract City Annual Reports. OLEO Director Deborah Jacobs handed out copies of the annual reports that KCSO provides to its contract cities. She asked everyone to read and review the reports they received, and come to the September meeting ready to share observations and ideas of what Committee could do with information.

6. Review of CIT Training. Following up on previous Committee discussions surrounding the many facets of CIT Training, OLEO Director Deborah Jacobs was honored to present, as guest speakers, members of King County Crisis Intervention Team and the CIT coordinator for the State of Washington;

- Sergeant Tony Lockhart, CIT Program Coordinator
- Dave Murphy, Program Manager, Community and Human Services (Diversion and Reentry Services Manager, KC Behavioral Health and Recovery Division)
- Bob Graham, State of Washington CIT Coordinator

Presenters provided comprehensive handouts and shared in-depth insight on Crisis Intervention training for both CIT team and Guest participant training

7. Meeting adjourned at 2:30
