from King County Councilmember Pete von Reichbauer

ESSAY TOPIC: Why is it important for our community to commemorate September 11, 2001?

Pete von Reichbauer
King County Councilmember

On September 11, 2001, people across the world should pause and reflect on the terrorist attacks in New York, Washington D.C., and Pennsylvania and what impact those attacks had on America and the world.

Thousands lost their lives, but millions came together as one, to respond to this assault on the principles of freedom-loving people.

Unfortunately, time and more than a decade of war has strained the connection we all felt in the months following that day. Share your thoughts in this essay.
