

I am Proud to Give....

I decided to contact the Big Brother Big Sister program to see if I could find mentors for my children... I cannot say enough good things about the BBBS program and how much they helped my family.

I needed a way to give back... Being a part of The Walk to End Alzheimer's is my chance to be proactive in getting the message out that this is an important group. My wife was a soccer player until Alzheimer's took it away. I want others to be able to keep playing soccer.
