

Minimum qualifications:

- * 21 years of age
- * High school diploma or GED
- * Valid Washington State Driver's license by the time of employment
- * Able to work all shifts, including evenings, weekends, holidays, and overtime

All Corrections Officers must complete a one year probationary period that includes:

- * Basic Corrections Officer Academy at the Washington State Criminal Justice Training Center (including Physical Agility Test)
- * Participation in the Corrections Field Training Officer program
- * Quarterly performance review & evaluation

We offer a great salary and benefits package that includes medical/dental/vision/life insurance and retirement benefits.

About the Department of Adult & Juvenile Detention: The King County Jail system is the largest county jail system in the state of Washington. King County Jails house about 2,500 inmates a day. We work closely with 40 law enforcement agencies within King County. DAJD books over 50,000 people per year. Our honor guard represents King County internationally. We provide inmates with GED education, health care, psychiatric services, and other programs.

Important work ... great pay and benefits ... training ... service to your community ... are you interested in joining our team?

The hiring process for Corrections Officers includes:

- * Written competency test
- * Physical agility test required by the Washington State Criminal Justice Training Commission (WSCJTC)
- * Reference/records checks
- * Employment & criminal history checks
- * Polygraph examination
- * Psychological testing/evaluation
- * Command staff interview
- * Pre-employment medical exam

To learn more:

www.kingcounty.gov/dajdjobs
DAJD human resources, 206-296-4114

King County

Department of Adult & Juvenile Detention

Professionalism & Dedication

Training & Opportunities

Honor & Commitment

Pride in Serving the Community

Corrections Officer

*You Made a Difference for Our Country,
Now Do the Same for Your Community*

King County

Department of Adult & Juvenile Detention

King County Corrections Officers

Integrity Service Courage Respect

King County Department of Adult & Juvenile Detention recognizes the value of your military service.

Your training and experiences have prepared you to take on new challenges. As the Pacific Northwest's largest jail system, we are proud to employ a great number of those who serve our nation as they transition to civilian life.

Benefits for reservists and National Guard:

- * 21 days/yr paid military leave
- * If called to active duty, you may receive these benefits:
  - Reemployment rights
  - Medical/dental coverage
  - Supplemental pay (if in service before 9/11)
  - Life insurance (up to 12 months coverage)

Receive your GI Bill benefits while working for us! DAJD qualifies as on-the-job training under the GI Bill. Through this program, you may receive your GI Bill benefits in addition to your full salary. For information, contact a recruiter at 206-296-4114.

King County has been named a Five Star Employer by the Employer Support of the Guard & Reserve (ESGR), a national agency within the Office of the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Reserve Affairs.

"The King County jail was a great choice for me after I got off of active duty. Many of the skills I acquired in the Air Force have helped me with my employment in the jail."

"Since joining King County, I have been called to active duty twice to support the global war on terror. King County kept my medical & dental benefits active, and even supplemented my wages."