

How to Object to a Notice of Intent to Move with the Children

Use this instruction if:

- You have an existing parenting plan/residential schedule AND
- The other party has served you with a Notice of Intent to Relocate
- OR
- The other party has moved without providing Notice of Intent to Relocate

NOTE: If the intended move is within the same school district as the child now resides, a person entitled to court-ordered visitation may not object to the relocation but they retain the right to ask for a modification under RCW 26.09.260

If you do not file an objection within 30 days after receiving the Notice of Intent to Relocate, the relocation of the child shall be permitted.

The other party will be allowed to relocate even after you file the objection unless you file a motion to prevent the move and schedule a hearing within 15 days.

Talk to a lawyer, if you can

These instructions have been developed by the King County Superior Court Family Law Information Center. They are not intended to be a substitute for legal advice. They provide only legal information. It's a good idea to talk to a lawyer before you file any forms. If you cannot afford a lawyer, you can:

- Find a lawyer to help you with the most difficult parts of your case, such as reviewing your forms, explaining how to get ready for court and confirming this is the best legal action for your case. You can contact the King County Bar Association to ask for a referral.
- Ask the Family Law Facilitator's office for a list of low-cost and free legal resources.

How many copies do I need?

- Original set to file with the Clerk's office.
- Copy 1 is for your records.
- Copy 2 is to serve the other party.
- Make a 3rd copy if you have a child(ren) who has received public assistance at some point. You must deliver copies of your filed forms to the King County Prosecuting Attorney's Office, Family Support Section

Fill out one of these forms after the other party has been served

Proof of Personal Service	FL All Family 101	See Step 2	<input type="checkbox"/>
Proof of Service by Mail	FL All Family 107	See Step 2	<input type="checkbox"/>

Step 2: Have the Other Parent Served

You must have the other party served with copies of:

- The Case Schedule that the Clerk gave you when you filed, and
- All of the forms you filed with the clerk, except the Case Assignment Area Form and the Confidential Information Form.

How to serve

Service must be personal service: Someone over 18 – not you - must serve (give) the other party copies of your court papers. After serving, the server fills out a Proof of Personal Service form and gives it to you. Keep a copy for your own records and file the original with the Clerk's Office.

If you have questions about serving, ask the facilitators for the packet of information about service.

Step 3: Wait for the Other Parent to Respond

You must wait:

20 days	If the other party was served in Washington State
60 days	If the other party was served outside of Washington State

If the other party does not respond, you can ask for an order of default which would allow you to finalize the case and change the Parenting Plan and/or Child Support. Ask a facilitator how to finalize the case by default.

If the other party does respond, follow the Case Schedule given to you by the Clerk when you filed your forms.

Step 4: Finishing your Case at Trial

If you and the other parent cannot come to an agreement you will have to have a trial before a Judge. About 4 to 6 weeks before your trial you will get an order in the mail telling you to come to court for a Pre-Trial Conference. At that hearing, the Judge will give you an Order. The Order will tell you what forms you need to finish your case and when they are due. Ask the Family Law Facilitators for information on preparing for trial. Also, get the forms listed below which can be downloaded at: www.courts.wa.gov/forms/

You will need these forms:

Final Order and Findings on Objection about Moving with Children and Petition about Changing a Parenting/Custody Order (Relocation)	FL Relocate 735		<input type="checkbox"/>
Final Parenting Plan	FL All Family 140		<input type="checkbox"/>

If a new order of child support is requested you will also need these forms:

- Your W-2s and complete personal tax returns for the past 2 years
- Your most recent pay stubs (at least 6 months)
- Complete partnership/corporate tax returns for the past 2 years if you have a 5% interest or more

Attachment: Summary of the law about moving with children (Relocation Act, RCW 26.09.430 - .480)

If the custodian plans to move, s/he must notify every person who has court-ordered time with the children.

Move to a different school district

If the move is to a different school district, the custodian must complete the form Notice of Intent to Move with Children (FL Relocate 701) and deliver it at least 60 days before the intended move.

Exceptions:

- If the custodian could not reasonably have known enough information to complete the form in time to give 60 days' notice, the custodian must give notice within 5 days after learning the information.
- If the custodian is relocating to a domestic violence shelter or moving to avoid a clear, immediate and unreasonable risk to health or safety, notice may be delayed 21 days.
- If information is protected under a court order or the address confidentiality program, it may be withheld from the notice.
- A custodian who believes that giving notice would put her/himself or a child at unreasonable risk of harm, may ask the court for permission to leave things out of the notice or to be allowed to move without giving notice. Use form Motion to Limit Notice of Intent to Move with Children (Ex Parte) (FL Relocate 702).

The Notice of Intent to Move with Children can be delivered by having someone personally serve the other party or by any form of mail that requires a return receipt.

If the custodian wants to change the Parenting Plan because of the move, s/he must deliver a proposed Parenting Plan together with the Notice.

Move within the same school district

If the move is within the same school district, the custodian still has to let the other parent know. However, the notice does not have to be served personally or by mail with a return receipt. Notice to the other party can be made in any reasonable way. No specific form is required.

Warning! If you do not notify...

A custodian who does not give the required notice may be found in contempt of court. If that happens the court can impose sanctions. Sanctions can include requiring the custodian to bring the children back if the move has already happened, and ordering the custodian to pay the other side's costs and lawyer's fees.

Right to object

A person who has court-ordered time with the children can object to a move to a different school district and/or to the custodian's proposed Parenting Plan. If the move is within the same school district, the other party doesn't have the right to object to the move, but s/he may ask to change the Parenting Plan if there are adequate reasons under the modification law (RCW 26.09.260).

An objection is made by filing the Objection about Moving with Children and Petition about Changing a Parenting/Custody Order (Relocation) (form FL Relocate 721). File your Objection with the court and serve a copy on the custodian and anyone else who has court-ordered time with the children. Service of the Objection must be by personal service or by mailing a copy to each person by any form of mail that requires a return receipt. The Objection must be filed and served no later than 30 days after the Notice of Intent to Move with Children was received.

Right to move

During the 30 days after the Notice was served, the custodian may not move to a different school district with the children unless s/he has a court order allowing the move.

After the 30 days, if no Objection is filed, the custodian may move with the children without getting a court order allowing the move.

After the 30 days, if an Objection has been filed, the custodian may move with the children pending the final hearing on the Objection unless:

- The other party gets a court order saying the children cannot move, or
- The other party has scheduled a hearing to take place no more than 15 days after the date the

- Objection was served on the custodian. (However, the custodian may ask the court for an order allowing the move even though a hearing is pending if the custodian believes that s/he or a child is at unreasonable risk of harm.)

The court may make a different decision about the move at a final hearing on the Objection.

Parenting Plan after move

If the custodian served a proposed Parenting Plan with the Notice, and if no Objection is filed within 30 days after the Notice was served (or if the parties agree):

- Both parties may follow that proposed plan without being held in contempt of the Parenting Plan that was in place before the move. However, the proposed plan cannot be enforced by contempt unless it has been approved by a court.

- Either party may ask the court to approve the proposed plan. Use form Ex Parte Motion for Final Order Changing Parenting Plan – No Objection to Moving with Children (FL Relocate 706).
