

King County

Behavioral Health and Recovery Division
Department of Community and Human Services

Mail submissions to:

King County
Behavioral Health and Recovery Division
401 5th Avenue, Suite 400
Seattle, WA 98104

2020 Poster Art & Poetry Contest

Our theme:

“Rising Above It All: Wellness, Resilience & Recovery”

The Winning Poster Art will receive a prize and be featured as King County's 2020 Recovery Poster

-AND-

The Winning Poem will receive a prize and be included in King County publications

DEADLINE EXTENDED: September 18, 2020

Who is eligible?

Adults, youth and family members who are currently participating in King County's publicly funded behavioral healthcare system or have participated in King County's publicly funded mental health or substance use treatment system in the past

The winning entries will be those that best express the theme:

RISING ABOVE IT ALL: WELLNESS, RESILIENCE & RECOVERY

Be on the lookout for additional ways to get involved with and celebrate Recovery Month this September!

The artwork above titled "Recovery Life" by Clifford S. Parsons received First Place in the 2019 Recovery Poster Art Contest

2020 Poster Art and Poetry Contest Entry Form – One form per entry

Name: _____

Address: _____

City/State/Zip: _____

Age: _____

Phone: _____

Email Address: _____

Service Provider: _____

Artwork/Poem Title: _____

Specifications for all entries:

- Posters should be on 11" x 17" paper
- May be painting, drawing, photograph, etc., suitable for a poster
- Poems must fit on one 8 1/2" X 11" page
- Must all be original work (no copyright material)
- Must be unframed and unmounted
- Must have name, address, and phone number on back of poster art or poetry
- Must be reproducible
- More than one entry will be accepted
- Must include this completed entry and signed form

EXTENDED DEADLINE: September 18, 2020

Artist/Poet statement: My entry expresses "Rising Above It All: Wellness, Resiliency & Recovery" by:

How does this theme resonate with you personally during this time? (Optional)

Mail submissions to: King County Behavioral Health and Recovery Division
401 5th Ave., Suite 400
Seattle, WA 98104

Permission to reproduce this entry and distribute copies:

I understand that the purpose of this contest and any posters/calendars/newsletters/electronic copies that will be made from my entry is to prevent and promote understanding of mental health and/or substance use challenges, reduce stigma, and spread a message of hope for recovery, resilience, and wellness. I give my permission to feature this entry in various King County publications and/or at King County sponsored events. If this entry is a winner, I hereby give my permission to have it professionally prepared, edited if necessary, printed in multiple copies, and distributed. I understand that once this entry is reproduced, this original art or poem will be returned to me by mail, upon my request, and I will have no further rights to publications reproduced from this original entry, their distribution, or the use made therefrom.

Please check the appropriate box: I want my original art returned to me Yes No

I declare that this entry is my original work, and that it contains no previously copyrighted material. I understand and agree to all of the above:

_____ (contestant signature) _____ (date)

If under 18 years of age, a parent or guardian signature is required:

_____ (parent/guardian signature) _____ (date)