Be sure to stop by to review:

A comment form is available for you to ask questions and share your feedback on how King County can be a good neighbor.

Be sure to visit the online open house before March 31.

Reminder: Walk-and-talks this Saturday

Our team will be walking residential streets on Saturday, March 3 in Mercer Island to discuss the detailed route with neighbors and answer questions about what to expect during construction. Additional information about this event, including times and meeting locations, is available on our meeting calendar.
