Filing to be a Candidate

How to file for office.

chapter 02

Becoming a candidate

To become a candidate, a voter must complete and file a Declaration of Candidacy. Voters must, at the time of filing, possess the qualifications specified by law required for the office and must be properly registered to vote in the district represented by the office at the time of filing. Information about residency requirements can be found at the end of this chapter.

To find out which offices you can file for this year, view the 2017 Offices Subject to Election on our website. This list includes the offices up for election in 2017, the current incumbent, where to file your Declaration of Candidacy, filing fee information and voters' pamphlet submission information.

When to file

The candidate filing period begins the Monday two weeks prior to Memorial Day and ends the following Friday.

All Declarations of Candidacy must be received before the close of business on the last day of the filing period. Declarations of Candidacy received after this date, regardless of the postmark, are invalid.

Candidates may file online starting at 9 a.m. on the first day of filing until 4 p.m. on the last day of filing. Declarations of Candidacy filed in person must be during business hours. Mailed Declarations of Candidacy may be submitted in advance up to ten business days before the filing period begins. Filings received prior to this date will be returned to the candidate.

Cost to file

Filing fees or filing fee petitions must accompany the Declaration of Candidacy at the time of filing. The filing fee is based on the salary in effect at the time of filing. Candidates can pay the filing fee online using a credit card, debit card or an electronic check. When paying online, a small convenience fee is charged. Candidates filing in person can pay with cash or check only. Candidates may also file online from the Elections office and pay with a credit or debit card.

Filing fees are not refundable, even in the event of a withdrawal. If a candidate withdraws and re-files for a different position, a second filing fee must be paid for the new position.

A candidate who lacks sufficient assets or income at the time of filing to pay the filing fee shall submit with their Declaration of Candidacy a filing fee petition. A candidate submitting a filing fee petition must submit all signatures when filing the Declaration of Candidacy.

To view filing fee information for offices subject to election this year, view the 2017 Offices Subject to Election on our website. This list includes the offices up for election in 2017, the current incumbent, where to file your Declaration of Candidacy, filing fee information and voters' pamphlet submission information.

Filing fee petitions

If you choose to submit a filing fee petition in lieu of a filing fee, you must submit all signatures at the time you file your Declaration of Candidacy. Candidates cannot supplement the signatures at a later date.

The petition must contain not less than the number of signatures of registered voters equal to the number of dollars of the filing fee. For example, if the filing fee is $461.08, the candidate must submit no less than 461 signatures of registered voters. The signatures must be of voters registered to vote within the jurisdiction for which the candidate is filing.

As a best practice, King County Elections recommends that candidates who plan to submit a filing fee petition, do so as early as possible during the week of candidate filing. Our office also recommends that you submit at least 25% more signatures than required.

The filing fee petition form can be found on our website.

Getting ready to file

Before you file for office, you will need to:

- Verify that your voter registration information is current. You can verify your voter registration information online at myvote.wa.gov.
- Verify the office and position for which you are filing. The responsibility for filing for the correct office is yours. Remember, filing fees are not refundable. If you withdraw and re-file for a different position, you must pay a second filing fee for the new position.
- Make sure you meet the qualifications for that office. You are responsible for ensuring that you meet all qualifications of the office.
- Decide how you want your name to appear on the ballot.
- If filing for a partisan office, know how you want your party preference information to appear on the ballot.
- Have your campaign contact information ready.

Your name on the ballot

When filing for office, you must input your name exactly as you wish it to appear on the ballot. You may use a nickname by which you are commonly known as your first name, but your last name must be the name under which you are registered to vote. For example, if you are registered to vote as William Smith but are commonly known as Bill, you may use Bill Smith for your ballot name.

You may not use a nickname that denotes present or past occupation or military rank, use a nickname that denotes your position on issues or political affiliation, or use a nickname designed to intentionally mislead voters.

Make sure you input your ballot name correctly, you cannot make any corrections once you submit your Declaration of Candidacy.

Partisan offices - party preferences

For a partisan office, you may choose to state a political party that you personally prefer. A preference does not imply that you have been nominated or endorsed by the party, or that the party approves of or associates with you.

If you choose to state a party preference, enter the name of the party (must be 16 characters or less). The first letter of the party preference will be capitalized (i.e., Democratic). If you use an acronym or initials, each letter will be capitalized whether or not use you periods (i.e., GOP or G.O.P.). Your party preference will appear below your name as “(Prefers _____ Party)”.

If you choose not to state a party preference, “(States No Party Preference)” will appear on the ballot.

Make sure you input your party preference exactly as you wish it to appear on the ballot; you cannot make any changes once you submit your Declaration of Candidacy.

No changes to party preference will be accepted between the primary and general election.

Click on the image above to watch a brief tutorial on how to file for office online.

How to file your Declaration of Candidacy

Filing your Declaration of Candidacy is important and as a best practice, King County Elections recommends that you submit your Declaration of Candidacy as early as possible during filing week. Our office will not accept late submissions.

Online filing is the easiest way to file for office. Online candidate filing opens on Monday, May 15, 2017, at 9 a.m. and is available 24 hours a day until Friday, May 19, 2017, at 4 p.m. Candidates in the system at 4 p.m. on the last day of filing will have until 4:30 p.m. to submit their filing. Candidates who have not completed their filing by 4:30 p.m. will be shut out of the system and their filing invalidated.

Candidates who file online will receive a confirmation email when their filing has been received and again when their filing has been approved.

King County Elections has created an online training session that demonstrates how to file for office. View the online training by clicking on the image shown above, which will link you directly to the video on our website. Candidates can also visit our website to watch the training session.

Candidates also have the option of filing their Declaration of Candidacy in-person at the Elections office during business hours, starting on Monday, May 15, 2017, at 8:30 a.m. and ending on Friday, May 19, 2017, at 4:30 p.m. No late filings will be accepted.

If you will be out of town and will not have computer access during the week of candidate filing, you may submit your Declaration of Candidacy by mail beginning on May 1, 2017. Filings submitted by mail must be received by 4:30 p.m. on May 19, 2017, regardless of postmark. Filings received by mail prior to May 1, 2017, will be returned to the candidate.

Once filed, a Declaration of Candidacy may not be altered. If you decide during the filing period

Correct

I approve of justice for all, fairness of the law and rehabilitation.

Incorrect

I approve of:

- JUSTICE for all
- Fairness of the law
- Rehabilitation

Keep your statement simple and write in the narrative. You may seek help when writing your statement but remember it is ultimately your responsibility. Obscene, profane, libelous and defamatory language will be rejected.

Voters want to know why they should vote for you. Here are a few tips from voters:

- Treat this as a resume and edit carefully.
- Give your vision for the future. Be positive.
- Write what you stand for or support.
- Describe your education, background and/or qualifications.
- Avoid technical terms that may not be generally understood.
- Avoid criticism of opponents.

Proofread carefully; your statement will be printed exactly as you submit it. You are not allowed to change your statement once it has been submitted.

Sample statement in the printed voters' pamphlet.

Education: Bachelor's in Economics, State University; Master's in Business Administration, State University

Occupation: Manager, Main Street Bank

Statement: We deserve a leader that will listen to our ideas and concerns and be proactive, not reactive, in their decision making. We deserve a leader that cares more about serving citizens than getting re-elected. We deserve a leader at city hall that can work with local businesses, instead of against them; a leader that has the knowledge to set the city on a successful course—not just for the next five years, but for the next five decades.

I am that leader.

Born and raised in this town, my roots here run deep. My family has lived here for four generations, and my husband and I are raising our three beautiful children here. As manager of the bank for the last fifteen years, I have expanded our small business loan program, creating opportunities for local businesses and organizations to make a difference in our community. This successful program has reduced the vacancy rate on Main Street to zero, creating a prosperous, revitalized Downtown.

I am an active community volunteer: as head of the PTA, I have worked with other parents to create the best learning environment for our kids; and I helped to establish our city's block watch program, which keeps our neighborhoods safe and crime rates low.

As your mayor I will work to make our city a better place for all residents to live. I will listen to your ideas and provide forums for discussion and debate. I will make decisions based not just on immediate need, but with an eye toward the future. I will make city government more transparent and fiscally responsible.

I want to make our city the best it can be; together we can make a difference! I humbly ask for your vote.

For the general election ballot, the candidate receiving the most votes in the primary election will appear first and the candidate receiving the second highest number of votes will appear second. Voter Registration Guidelines chapter 08

General information about voter registration drives.

Voter registration drives

It is the policy of the state of Washington to encourage every eligible person to register to vote and to participate fully in all elections and to protect the integrity of the electoral process by providing equal access to the process while guarding against discrimination and fraud. Make sure the people of your community have a voice in the next election.

Tips for a successful drive:

- Plan your drive well in advance of voter registration deadlines.
- Consider coordinating with other groups to maximize your efforts.
- Obtain permission from the owner or manager before conducting drives on private property.
- Obtain forms from your local elections office or the Secretary of State's Office.
- Treat everyone the same.
- Know how to complete the form so you can assist individuals.
- Allow people to take a registration form and submit it themselves.
- Let people know they may fill out a form to update their existing registration (name change, address change, etc.)
- Assist people with disabilities only when they ask for help.
- Have contact information for the local elections office available to aid in referring people.
- Submit completed forms within five business days, by mail or in person, to the local elections office or Secretary of State's Office. (RCW 29A.08.115)
- Return unused forms to the local elections office or Secretary of State's Office.

Do not...

- refuse to give anyone a registration form.
- offer gifts or promotional items for registering someone to vote unless you offer the same item to someone who does not register to vote.
- accept registrations you know to be fraudulent (see Voter Concern Information at the end of this chapter).

- 29 days before an election.
- Changes to residential address, mailing address, name or other voter registration record information must be made before this deadline. (If the deadline is not met, voters may still vote using their previous voter registration record information.)
- The registration must be postmarked no later than the deadline.

In-person at the local elections office:

Campaign Sign Regulations

General information about campaign sign regulations.

chapter 09

The role of King County Elections

King County Elections has no role in the regulation of campaign signs.

King County sign regulations

Political campaign signs are signs, posters or handbills promoting or publicizing candidates for public office or issues to be voted on in a general or special election. The context of political campaign signs is limited to matters scheduled for election and does not include general political positions or issues.

Where campaign signs are allowed: Political campaign signs may be displayed on private property with the property owner's consent. Any such signs, posters or handbills must be removed within 10 days following the election day, per King County Code (KCC) 21A.20.120C1. Although the campaign volunteers may agree to remove any sign, the property owner is ultimately responsible for compliance with the removal policy.

Where signs are not allowed: KCC 21A.20.040 and 21A.20.120C2 prohibit any signs, posters, handbills or other advertising devices, including political campaign signs, on the county's right-of-way, public easements, public property or utility poles with a few exceptions. King County Code allows some signs when they have been specifically permitted for traffic management and safety purposes. Real estate open house directional signs are permitted by KCC 21A.20.120D2. The agent or seller must be on site and the signs must be located outside of vehicular and bicycle lanes. Other directional signs may be permitted by special-use permit per KCC Chapter 14.30 Permit System for County Property. The county may remove and dispose of any other signs illegally posted in the road right-of-way.

The road right-of-way: This includes the paved road and a strip of land, usually on either side of the road, that is reserved for shoulders, drainage ditches, sidewalks, traffic signs, electrical traffic control boxes, utility lines and future road expansion. Exact right-of-way areas vary in width and boundaries may not be possible to identify without detailed legal maps and a formal survey. Property owners may not know the exact right-of-way boundary and may have maintained, landscaped or fenced this area. King County often receives complaints about campaign signs inadvertently placed on the public right-of-way. When in doubt about the location of the right-of-way boundary, post the campaign sign on private property with the owner's consent, well past the point of uncertainty.

Illegally-posted signs are a safety hazard: Carelessly placed signs can reduce driver visibility, distract drivers' attention from the roadway or force pedestrians and bicyclists into dangerous areas close to the road edge or onto difficult terrain alongside the road shoulder. Traffic and pedestrian safety is a high priority for the Road Services Division, and crews are quick to address safety concerns related to illegally-posted campaign signs.

Posting regulations: Violations waste taxpayer dollars. Each year, King County logs many complaints about improperly posted campaign signs. Taxpayer money is wasted when road crews must spend time removing signs before mowing or performing other activities, and when county investigators are required to spend time following up on sign complaints.

Extra work for campaigns: Most campaigns make sure their workers are aware of campaign sign-posting regulations. In their enthusiasm for their candidate or issue, however, some campaign workers or private citizens may overlook the regulations or engage in seemingly harmless pranks concerning the opposition's signs. In addition to wasting taxpayer money, depending on the size or nature of the posting violation, campaigns may have to dedicate valuable staffing resources to respond to the event.

What to do about signs illegally placed

On private property:

- Property owners can contact the campaign headquarters and ask to have the sign removed.
- Advise the campaign about the error so it is not repeated.
- The King County Road Services Division has no authority over signs posted on private property.

On the road right-of-way in unincorporated King County:

- Call Road Services at 206-296-8100 or toll-free at 1-800-527-6237.

Report sign problems not related to road right-of-way issues:

- Call the campaign headquarters. The King County Elections website lists all of the candidates and their campaign contact information if it is not listed on the sign.
- To file a formal complaint about damaged or stolen political campaign signs in unincorporated King County, contact the King County Sheriff's office at 206-296-3311. Include such facts as license numbers, names and witnesses to the theft. Do not call 911.

How to retrieve signs removed from the right-of-way:

- Campaigners can call Road Services at 206-296-8100 or 1-800-527-6237 to find out how to retrieve signs that maintenance crews have removed.
- Private property owners should contact the campaign headquarters to replace a sign that has been vandalized or stolen from their property.

Washington State sign regulations

RCW 47.42 and the Highway Control Act regulate signing on Interstate highways, primary highways and highways that are part of the Scenic and Recreational system. Signs erected on private property adjacent to these highways must comply with the Highway Advertising Control Act rules contained in WAC 468.66, and applicable local agency sign codes.
