Filing to be a Candidate

chapter 02

Becoming a candidate

To become a candidate, you must complete and file a Declaration of Candidacy and, at the time of filing, possess the qualifications specified by law required for the office and be properly registered to vote in the district represented by the office. Information about residency requirements can be found at the end of this chapter.

To find out which offices you can file for this year, view the Offices Subject to Election on our website. This list includes the offices up for election, the current incumbent, where to file your Declaration of Candidacy, filing fee information and voters' pamphlet submission information.

When to file

The candidate filing period begins the Monday two weeks prior to Memorial Day and ends the following Friday.

All Declarations of Candidacy must be received before the close of business on the last day of the filing period. Declarations of Candidacy received after this date, regardless of the postmark, are invalid. No late filings will be accepted.

Candidates may file online starting at 9 a.m. on the first day of filing until 4 p.m. on the last day of filing. Mailed Declarations of Candidacy may be submitted in advance up to ten business days before the filing period begins. Filings received prior to this date will be returned to the candidate. Contact the Elections office for more information about filing in person.

Cost to file

Filing fees or filing fee petitions must accompany the Declaration of Candidacy at the time of filing. The filing fee is based on the salary in effect at the time of filing. Candidates can pay the filing fee online using a credit card or debit card. Candidates paying the filing fee with cash or check should contact the Elections office for information about filing in person.

Filing fees are not refundable, even in the event of a withdrawal. If a candidate withdraws and re-files for a different position, a second filing fee must be paid for the new position.

A candidate who lacks sufficient assets or income at the time of filing to pay the filing fee should contact our office as soon as possible to receive more information about your options.

To view filing fee information for offices subject to election this year, view the Offices Subject to Election on our website. This list includes the offices up for election, the current incumbent, where to file your Declaration of Candidacy, filing fee information and voters' pamphlet submission information.

Filing fee petitions

Those planning to submit a filing fee petition or who lack the funds to pay their filing fee should contact our office as soon as possible to receive more information about options.

Getting ready to file

Before you file for office, you will need to:

- Verify that your voter registration information is current. You can verify your voter registration information online.
- Verify the office and position for which you are filing. The responsibility for filing for the correct office is yours. Remember, filing fees are not refundable. If you withdraw and re-file for a different position, you must pay a second filing fee for the new position.
- Make sure you meet the qualifications for that office. You are responsible for ensuring that you meet all qualifications of the office.
- Decide how you want your name to appear on the ballot.
- If filing for a partisan office, know how you want your party preference information to appear on the ballot.
- Have your campaign contact information ready.

Your name on the ballot

When filing for office, you must input your name exactly as you wish it to appear on the ballot. You may use a nickname by which you are commonly known as your first name, but your last name must be the name under which you are registered to vote. For example, if you are registered to vote as William Smith but are commonly known as Bill, you may use Bill Smith for your ballot name.

You may not use a nickname that denotes present or past occupation or military rank, use a nickname that denotes your position on issues or political affiliation, or use a nickname designed to intentionally mislead voters.

Make sure you input your ballot name correctly; you cannot make any corrections once you submit your Declaration of Candidacy.

Partisan offices - party preferences

For a partisan office, you may choose to state a political party that you personally prefer. A preference does not imply that you have been nominated or endorsed by the party, or that the party approves of or associates with you.

If you choose to state a party preference, enter the name of the party (must be 18 characters or less). The first letter of the party preference will be capitalized (i.e., Democratic). If you use an acronym or initials, each letter will be capitalized whether or not you use periods (i.e., GOP or G.O.P.). Your party preference will appear below your name as "(Prefers _____ Party)".

If you choose not to state a party preference, "(States No Party Preference)" will appear on the ballot.

Make sure you input your party preference exactly as you wish it to appear on the ballot; you cannot make any changes once you submit your Declaration of Candidacy.

No changes to party preference will be accepted between the primary and general election.

How to file your Declaration of Candidacy

Filing your Declaration of Candidacy is important and as a best practice, King County Elections recommends that you submit your Declaration of Candidacy as early as possible during filing week. Our office cannot accept late submissions.

All candidates will file online via the Secretary of State's Candidate Filing portal. Online candidate filing opens on Monday, May 11, 2020, at 9 a.m. and is available 24 hours a day until Friday, May 15, 2020, at 4 p.m.

Candidates will receive a confirmation email when their filing has been received and again when their filing has been approved.

King County Elections has prepared a training tutorial video that will guide you through the steps to file for office online. You can view the tutorial by clicking on the image above, which will link you directly to the video.

To help slow the spread of CoVID-19, Declarations of Candidacy for offices filed with King County may be submitted in person only as necessary on a case-by-case basis from 8:30 a.m. on May 11, 2020 until 4:30 p.m. on May 15, 2020. Contact the Elections office for more information about filing in person.

If you will be out of town and will not have computer access during the week of candidate filing, you may submit your Declaration of Candidacy by mail beginning on April 27, 2020. Filings submitted by mail must be received by 4:30 p.m. on May 15, 2020, regardless of postmark.

Filings received by mail prior to April 27, 2020, will be returned to the candidate.

Once filed, a Declaration of Candidacy may not be altered. If you decide during the filing period to change the Declaration of Candidacy, you must first withdraw and then re-file.

Clicking on the image above will link to a brief tutorial on how to file for office online.

At the time of filing, you must possess the qualifications specified by law required for the office and be properly registered to vote in the district represented by the office. ### When to file

Declarations of Write-in Candidacy must be received by 8 p.m. on the primary or general election day. The filing fee is based the timing of when the declaration is filed. Write-in candidates that file 19 days or earlier before an election do not pay a filing fee. Write-in candidates that file 18 days or less before an election must pay a filing fee amount. For offices with an annual salary of more than $1,000, the filing fee amount is 1% of the annual salary. For all other offices, the filing fee amount is $25. A candidate who lacks sufficient assets or income at the time of filing to pay the filing fee should contact our office as soon as possible to receive more information about options.

To find out filing fee information for offices subject to election this year, view the Offices Subject to Election on our website. This list includes the offices up for election, the current incumbent, where to file your Declaration of Write-in Candidacy and filing fee information.

Filing fee petitions

Those planning to submit a filing fee petition or who lack the funds to pay their filing fee should contact our office as soon as possible to receive more information about options.

Results

Write-in votes are not tabulated for individual write-in candidates unless there is a declared write-in candidate for that race and enough write-in votes are cast to meet the thresholds required for individually tallying those votes.

Qualifying for the ballot

Names of write-in candidates will not appear on the ballot or in the voters' pamphlet.

As a declared write-in candidate any recognizable variation of your name will be counted.

If a write-in candidate qualifies for the general election by earning a sufficient number of votes in the primary, the candidate's name will be printed on the general election ballot and in the general election voters' pamphlet.

Withdrawal of write-in candidacy

Withdrawals of write-in candidacy must be received before 8 p.m. on the date of a primary or general election.

To withdraw, you must submit a signed request. A Withdrawal of Candidacy form will be made available on our website in May.

Voters' Pamphlet Information

Guidelines and information on how to submit your voters' pamphlet information.

chapter 04

Where to file

The Secretary of State's Office accepts voters' pamphlet submissions for federal, statewide, legislative, Court of Appeals and Superior Court offices. All other offices file with King County Elections. The voters' pamphlet guidelines and deadlines in this manual only pertain to candidates who file with King County Elections.

Where to file and word limits for each office are listed in the Offices Subject to Election on our website. Please note, candidates for multi-county local races will need to file their voters' pamphlet materials with each county.

When to file

Our office must receive your voters' pamphlet submission for the primary election no later than Friday, May 22, 2020, at 4:30 p.m., regardless of postmark.

You have the option of submitting a new statement for the general election. If you choose to submit a new statement and/or photo for the general election, you can begin filing as early as Monday, July 20, 2020. Your voters' pamphlet submission for the general election must be received by our office no later than Friday, August 7, 2020, at 4:30 p.m., regardless of postmark.

Submissions received after the deadline will not be accepted. No exceptions.

Your photo

You may submit one self-portrait of your head and shoulders. Use a light-colored background, but white is not recommended. Photos should be no more than five years old. Clothing or insignia that suggest a public office (i.e., judicial robes, law enforcement or military uniforms) are not allowed.

Your photo should not be digitally altered. Digital photos should be at minimum 300 dpi resolution and no smaller than 4 x 5 inches (1200 x 1500 pixels).

If you do not submit a photo the phrase "No photo submitted" will appear in the pamphlet.

Once filed, you are not allowed to change your photo. If you decide during the filing period to change your submission, you must first withdraw and then re-file by the deadline.

Deadline to file voters' pamphlet information

Primary Election: May 22, 2020, at 4:30 p.m.

General Election: August 7, 2020, at 4:30 p.m.

Formatting

Space for each candidate is limited, so formatting is very important.

Format your statement as an essay; text must be written in paragraphs. Tables, lists and bullets are not allowed, and will be changed to a block paragraph with a semicolon to separate each item. The number of paragraphs permitted is based on statement word limits:

- 150 words: three paragraphs
- 200 words: four paragraphs
- 300 words: five paragraphs

Only use italics to emphasize specific words or statements. Bold, underline and all caps is not allowed. Words or statements submitted with prohibited formatting will be changed to italics.

Correct

I approve of justice for all, fairness of the law and rehabilitation.

Incorrect

- I approve of:
- JUSTICE for all
  - Fairness of the law
  - Rehabilitation

Keep your statement simple and write in the narrative. Per RCW 29A.32.230(3), your statement must only be about you. Do not include references to your opponent(s). You may seek help when writing your statement but remember it is ultimately your responsibility. All or any part of a candidate statement may be rejected at the Elections Director's discretion if it contains obscene, profane, libelous and/or defamatory language.

Voters want to know why they should vote for you. Here are a few tips from voters:

- Treat this as a resume and edit carefully.
- Give your vision for the future. Be positive.
- Write what you stand for or support.
- Describe your education, background and/or qualifications.
- Avoid technical terms that may not be generally understood.
- Do not criticize opponents.

Sample statement in the printed voters' pamphlet.

Education: Bachelor's in Economics, State University; Master's in Business Administration, State University

Occupation: Manager, Main Street Bank

Statement: We deserve a leader that will listen to our ideas and concerns and be proactive, not reactive, in their decision making. We deserve a leader that cares more about serving citizens than getting re-elected. We deserve a leader at city hall that can work with local businesses, instead of against them; a leader that has the knowledge to set the city on a successful course—not just for the next five years, but for the next five decades. I am that leader.

Born and raised in this town, my roots here run deep. My family has lived here for four generations, and my husband and I are raising our three beautiful children here. As manager of the bank for the last fifteen years, I have expanded our small business loan program, creating opportunities for local businesses and organizations to make a difference in our community. This successful program has reduced the vacancy rate on Main Street to zero, creating a prosperous, revitalized Downtown.

I am an active community volunteer: as head of the PTA, I have worked with other parents to create the best learning environment for our kids; and I helped to establish our city's block watch program, which keeps our neighborhoods safe and crime rates low.

As your mayor I will work to make our city a better place for all residents to live. I will listen to your ideas and provide forums for discussion and debate. I will make decisions based not just on immediate need, but with an eye toward the future. I will make city government more transparent and fiscally responsible.

I want to make our city the best it can be; together we can make a difference! I humbly ask for your vote.

Campaign Sign Regulations

General information about campaign sign regulations.

chapter 09

The role of King County Elections

King County Elections has no role in the regulation of campaign signs.

King County sign regulations

King County regulates all signs on county-owned property, easements and unincorporated road right-of-way, and unpermitted signs are not allowed in these locations (King County Code (KCC) 21A.20.040 and 21A.20.120C2). The county may remove and dispose of any unpermitted signs posted on county-owned property, easements or road right-of-way.

Political campaign signs may be displayed on private property with the property owner's consent. Any such signs, posters or handbills must be removed within 10 days following the election day, per King County Code (KCC) 21A.20.120C1. Although the campaign volunteers may agree to remove any sign, the property owner is ultimately responsible for compliance with the removal policy.

What to do about signs illegally placed

On private property:

- Property owners can contact the campaign headquarters and ask to have the sign removed.
- Advise the campaign about the error so it is not repeated.
- The King County Road Services Division has no authority over signs posted on private property.

On the road right-of-way in unincorporated King County:

- Call Road Services at 1-800-KC-ROADS (527-6237).

Report sign problems not related to road right-of-way issues:

- Call the campaign headquarters. If the campaign contact information is not listed on the sign, the King County Elections website lists all of the candidates and their campaign contact information.
- To file a formal complaint about damaged or stolen political campaign signs in unincorporated King County, contact the King County Sheriff's Office at 206-296-3311. It will be helpful to include such facts as license numbers, names and witnesses to the theft. Do not call 911.

How to retrieve signs removed from the right-of-way:

- Campaigns can call Road Services at 1-800-KC-ROADS (527-6237) to find out how to retrieve signs that maintenance crews have removed.
- Private property owners should contact the campaign headquarters to replace a sign that has been vandalized or stolen from their property.

Washington State sign regulations

RCW 47.42 and the Highway Advertising Control Act regulate signs on Interstate highways, Primary highways and highways that are part of the Scenic and Recreational system. Signs on private property adjacent to these highways must comply with the Highway Advertising Control Act, rules contained in WAC 468-66 and applicable local agency sign codes. Signs placed within the right-of-way of any state highway are subject to removal by the Washington State Department of Transportation.

Per WAC 468-66-050 & RCW 47.36.180(1), temporary political campaign signs:

- are limited to a maximum size of 32 square feet;
- must not resemble an official traffic control sign;
- must be removed within 10 days following the election;
- be placed with permission of the property owner prior to placing sign.

For any questions about the placement of campaign signs along state highways, call 360-705-7282.
