Occupation: Executive Director - Non-Profit Arts and Sciences Foundation

Education: B.S. -- University of Florida

This year’s election for King County Executive provides voters a clear choice between the old way of partisan politics or the new way of BRINGING PEOPLE TOGETHER TO GET THINGS DONE – that’s my commitment to you. As the Executive Director of an arts, science and education foundation, as well as years of service in leadership roles at the Seattle Symphony, Children’s Hospital and Salvation Army, I’ve established a successful record of bringing diverse people and interests together to solve complex problems.

I am a BUDGET REFORMER, NOT A CAREER POLITICIAN. I do NOT believe the answer to budget problems is a higher fee or new tax. I’ll use my leadership experience in the private and non-profit sectors to cut wasteful spending and balance the budget.

I’LL WORK for the PEOPLE of King County to:

HELP SMALL BUSINESSES CREATE JOBS. Small businesses are the engine of our economy. I’ll fight for tax incentives for small businesses to create new jobs, encourage businesses to locate here, and keep existing businesses from leaving.

EASE CONGESTION THROUGHOUT OUR REGION. Traffic gridlock is killing jobs. I’ll appoint a leader to coordinate our transportation policy so our multiple agencies work together to cut costs and increase efficiency.

PROTECT OUR ENVIRONMENT. I’ll work cooperatively with environmental, labor and business groups toward goals that serve our entire community.

I am proud to be ENDORSED BY DEMOCRATS: Lieutenant Governor Brad Owen, State Auditor Brian Sonntag and former Congressman Don Bonker, AND REPUBLICANS: Attorney General Rob McKenna, former Governor Dan Evans and former Secretary of State Ralph Munro. If you want positive change, and strong, independent leadership, I humbly ask for your support. Working together we can again make King County the best place to live and work. Thank you for your vote!

Occupation: Chair: County Council, Sound Transit Operations; former State Senator; Attorney

Education: Law Degree, Master’s Degree in Urban Planning, and Bachelor’s Degree, UW; West Seattle High School

Dow Constantine: Real Reform – and Results to Prove It

Dow Constantine is a no-nonsense reformer who knows how to lead on tough issues. Dow was the first candidate for King County Executive to offer a plan to reform King County and cut county benefit costs, praised by The Seattle Times as “a dose of economic reality.” Instead of sound bites, Dow leads by example: passing a countywide hiring freeze, slashing administrative costs, and implementing performance measures. His budget plan identifies $75 million in savings, streamlining bureaucracy and cutting overhead. Dow will balance the budget and protect core services, from parks to public safety, without new taxes. His proposal was hailed by the Times as “the most detailed blueprint to date for balancing the 2010 budget.”

A Vision for All of King County: Dow represents suburban, rural, and urban neighborhoods. Dow rejects tired political divisions that pit communities against each other.

A Champion for Jobs: The son of teachers and grandson of a sawmill worker, Dow will cut red tape for small businesses, fight for new careers in clean energy and biotechnology, and protect manufacturing jobs.

Proven Transportation Leadership: Dow helped lead the successful effort to expand light rail across King County. He proposed hundreds of millions in Sound Transit savings, and shifting funds from ferry expansion proposals to save Metro bus service.

Genuine Environmental Commitment: Dow helped stop a multinational mining company from despoiling Puget Sound, and led with action on climate change, preserving open space, and saving parks from threats of closure.

Dow Constantine offers plain-spoken, honest leadership, committed to reform that is true to our fundamental values.

Select Endorsements: Firefighters; Paramedics; Sierra Club; Conservation Voters; County Democrats; business leaders; NARAL Pro-Choice; Planned Parenthood Votes; County Labor Council; Senator Maria Cantwell; Senator Patty Murray.

Occupation: Sheriff of King County

Education: BA, Criminal Justice- Washington State University, Cum Laude

As your Sheriff, I had to cut 87 deputies and critical personnel last year because of the county budget crisis. And more cuts are scheduled for this year. That's why I need your vote and your help now to fight for the protection you deserve.

As the top law enforcement officer of Washington State's largest county, I oversee an organization of over 1000 employees and a $150 million budget in a county that spans over 2,100 square miles. This includes providing police services to 12 cities, Metro Transit, Sound Transit, the Muckleshoot Tribe, the United States Forest Service, and the King County International Airport.

It is my job to sound the alarm when police services drop below the level you elected me to uphold. The budget may be in crisis, but I will not stand by silently while deputies are cut and county programs such as the foot ferries and high priced bureaucrats take valuable resources we should be using to protect you. I need you to pay attention to budget talks this year – and join me in telling your County Councilmembers that we cannot cut this Sheriff’s budget any further.

It has been my honor to serve you. Together, let's ensure that King County remains a safe place to live.

Sue Rahr spent 30 years rising through the Sheriff’s office ranks – from patrol deputy to head of the Gang Unit to Chief of Field Operations. Sue was appointed Sheriff to finish the term of now-Congressman Dave Reichert, and faced the voters in 2005, winning with a 77% majority. She was elected the first female sheriff in King County’s 155 year history. She is the only woman on the National Sheriff's Association Executive Board and frequently speaks on behalf of urban sheriffs.

Occupation: Certified Residential Appraiser, Former Appraisal Manager, College Instructor.

Education: B.A. University of Washington. UW Certificate in Organizational Communication

I have the experience and the backbone to be the “Taxpayers’ Advocate” - as your next King County Assessor. My qualifications and experience are ideal to lead the Assessor’s Office. I have been a full-time appraisal professional since the age of 22. At age 26 I was promoted to manage a large appraisal department in Bellevue. I am one of fewer than 700 people nationwide certified to teach the Appraisal Standards course that all licensed appraisers must pass, and have trained many new appraisers - including some who now work in the Assessor's Office. In addition to working as an appraiser, I serve as an instructor at North Seattle Community College and the Rockwell Institute, instructing my students that high standards are not negotiable.

I know what it takes to stand up for your interests. As a former Washington Mutual employee I was appalled at the sub-standard property appraisals they were using to make bad loans. I publicly exposed their disreputable appraisal practices. The collapse of the banking giant is a potent reminder that lax appraisal standards can have disastrous effects. I fought for fiscal prudence to protect borrowers and shareholders, and, as King County Assessor I’ll fight just as hard to protect your interests as property owners.

As your Assessor, I will • Work to ensure homeowners are taxed on a realistic assessment of their home, not on the peak value from the boom years • Maintain professionalism and ethics within our nationally recognized assessor’s department • Be a prudent manager of your resources • Bring fresh ideas from the private sector.

King County taxpayers need an Assessor who is competent and fair. I proved with WaMu that I will stand up for what is right. I’m ready to serve as your Assessor. I ask for your vote.

Gene Lux has been a resident of King County since 1942. After graduating from Cleveland High School and working in the home building industry, Gene took many correspondence courses and attended extension courses at U.W. Gene has served 12 years on the Group Health Coop Board, now serves as the senior caucus representative on the Washington Senior Lobby Board in Olympia.

Gene has been a general contractor and residential property developer since the 1950s.

In the early 1970s and 80s Gene served 13 years in the Washington House of Representatives with two appointments to the Washington State Senate.

Gene has served on the Washington State Health Care Authority, Public Employee Benefits Board and on the Funeral Directors and Embalmers Board.

As a fire Commissioner for Fire District #20 in the unincorporated area of Skyway he is very aware of how critical the Dept. of Assessments affects the district budget.

Gene has served on the board of the King County Fire Commissioners Association as well as the Washington State Fire Commissioners Association.

Gene has lived in the West Hill area for 30 years and serves as a board member on the West Hill Community Council.

Your support is appreciated.

Occupation: Seattle Port Commissioner and Small Business Owner
Education: BA in Economics, U of Wash.; Masters in Public Administration, U of Wash.

The work of the Assessor’s Office has a direct effect on the property taxes you pay. Your next assessor needs to have a record of solid management skills, integrity, and dealing with taxpayers in a fair and open manner.

I fit the bill. I’m Lloyd Hara, and I’m asking for your vote.

I’ve spent my career working for you – as a national award-winning Seattle City Treasurer and King County Auditor, an Army officer, regional FEMA Director, and currently as a watchdog – not a lapdog – on the Port Commission.

I’ve successfully run complex public agencies dealing in financial matters, managing hundreds of employees, and holding myself and the agencies to the highest public accountability standards. I’m a proven manager, not just a number cruncher.

Here’s what I’ll do: Fight to get seniors greater property tax relief -- Ensure your property is fairly and equitably assessed at current values -- Reform the Assessor’s office to be more accessible, so taxpayers get questions answered -- Order a performance audit to find out what’s right, what’s wrong, and then fix it.

Times are tough for our neighbors who have lost wages, life savings, even their homes. Plunging real estate values have spurred a record number of property tax appeals. This is no time for unnecessary risks -- King County needs a proven manager with a record of fairness and integrity. I’d appreciate your vote.

I am endorsed by over 700 civic leaders, organizations, former officials, and prominent citizens, including Speaker Frank Chopp, former Auburn Mayor Chuck Booth, King County Democrats, Bull Moose Republicans, Aerospace Machinists Local 751, Builders United in Legislative Development, Seattle Councilmember Richard Conlin, Inlandboatmen’s Union, Bellevue Councilmember Conrad Lee, Sea-Tac Fire Fighters, State Representatives Eric Pettigrew, Judy Clibborn, Dave Upthegrove, State Sen. Claudia Kauffman, and Carpenters and Joiners Local 1797.

Occupation: Retired Deputy Assessor and real estate investor
Education: University of Washington, BA Sociology; International Association of Assessing Officers, advanced classes including Assessment Administration

King County deserves an Assessor who will be ready to work from day one. That Assessor is Bob Rosenberger, a widely respected and experienced professional who knows what it takes to ensure that: • You pay only your fair share of taxes • Teachers, firefighters, nurses, and police keep providing needed services through fair and accurate distribution of levies • Senior citizens stay in their homes in the face of changing economic conditions.

Bob is the only candidate with 24 years of prime responsibility for appraising thousands of complex properties across the county – from the home you might own or rent all the way up to large commercial and industrial projects.

While the Assessor’s office has won awards for service and outreach, Bob will place more information on the web and improve communication with other agencies.

Bob Rosenberger understands the technical aspects of tax law. He understands real estate; he spent seven years in brokerage, and now invests in residential property. He knows the importance of reliable results.

Bob served as shop steward and has been a local leader in the International Association of Assessing Officers. He has attended five International Conferences as well as qualifying as an instructor.

In these hard times, Bob knows where to cut costs while improving outcomes. He will run a leaner and greener department to the benefit of the taxpayers.

Bob Rosenberger believes in current value appraising to assure accuracy and fairness. He will work to reduce exemptions that merely shift taxes onto the rest of us.

King County voters need an Assessor who won’t create more risk in an already risky economic environment. That is why Bob Rosenberger has the endorsements of former Assessor Ruthe Ridder, Senator Margarita Prentice, Senator Joe McDermott, Representative Sharon Tomiko Santos, and other regional leaders.
Occupation: Certified Public Accountant
Education: B.A., University of Washington

I have the experience to make the tough decisions, to be fair and to operate with the highest integrity. I am a Certified Public Accountant that has conducted audits of public entities, as well as, government programs. I have been an officer and tax manager of a national real estate developer and management company. I have appealed property assessments in various jurisdictions. I am a Vietnam era Veteran. I was a paratrooper with the 82nd Airborne. I have the toughness and management skills to head a department undergoing budget cuts.

A June 1, 2009 state audit criticizes the assessor’s office for not having adequate policies and procedures over personal property tax refunds. A spokesman at the Assessor’s office recently stated that he has only two people to deal with the 13,000+ tax appeals. He is quoted as saying “something has to change.” I understand effective internal controls and I will take action to insure that these problems are addressed.

Current and future budget cuts will require the Assessor to re-allocate resources. I will return to reassessing property every two years like many other counties do, saving both manpower and other expenses. My experience working as a CPA auditor will enable me to assess the problems and take corrective actions.

It is clear that government will be required to operate with less revenue. Taxpayers are hurting. The answer is not new taxes. The Assessor’s office will need to operate more efficiently and at a lower cost.

I offer King County Voters the opportunity to elect someone who has operated his own business. I know when times are tough you have to make adjustments on the way you operate. My private sector business experience has given me the management skills to provide the leadership needed. I ask for your vote.

Julia Patterson
206-276-5779

Occupation: King County Councilmember
Education: B.A. Society and Justice, WSU; B.A. English, UW

A recognized, award winning leader in regional governance, Julia Patterson serves South King County with hard work, distinction and honor. Julia comes from four generations of Washingtonians, involved in and committed to our community. She has continued this tradition by raising her family here, serving us in the State Legislature, and now on the King County Council.

As Chair of the King County Council, Julia pioneered the creation and initial funding of the new Lake to Sound trail system; eventually connecting the communities of Des Moines, SeaTac, Tukwila, Kent and Renton.

As Chair of the King County Board of Health, Julia successfully passed into law nationally recognized legislation requiring that chain restaurants provide nutritional information on menus, and the elimination of trans fats from our foods.

As a member of the Sound Transit Board of Directors, Julia convincingly advocated for Light Rail’s extension to the airport, additional trips on the Sounder rail system, and a new station for Renton/Tukwila.

Chosen Public Official of the Year by the Kent Chamber of Commerce, Julia provides South County communities with a respected, knowledgeable voice on matters relating to transit, public health, transportation/trails, and efficient government.

Occupation: Judge Ellington serves on the Court of Appeals.
Education: She received her law degree from UW in 1974.

Biographical Information
Judge Ellington was a Supreme Court law clerk, an assistant attorney general, and partner in a local law firm before her election to King County Superior Court, where she served for 10 years and was the first woman elected as Presiding Judge. She was appointed to the Court of Appeals in 1995.

Candidate Statement
Growing up in a large family, Judge Ellington learned to work hard and share the good things. She believes in respect and fairness toward those who appear before her, and strives for justice and clarity in her decisions. She is regarded as a fair, practical, and hardworking judge and has a reputation for integrity, intelligence, legal ability, compassion, and courage.

Our courts are the centerpiece of our democracy. Without the rule of law, we would have no freedom. Judge Ellington believes our courts must be independent, accessible and responsive. She is passionate about her work and about her efforts to ensure access to the courts and to reduce delay.

Judge Ellington receives excellent ratings (“exceptionally well qualified”) and has been honored three times as Outstanding Judge (King County Bar Association, Washington Women Lawyers, and Washington State Trial Lawyers Association). She received the Judicial Leadership Award from the Access to Justice Board, the President’s Award from the National Association of Women Lawyers, the White Ribbon Award from the Washington Coalition of Citizens with disAbilities, and was named Distinguished Alumna by UW law women’s caucus.

She regards the opportunity to serve on the court as a great privilege and responsibility, and is honored to serve this community. Please vote to re-elect her. Thank you.

Re-elect John Creighton: Effective Leadership, Real Reform

An independent, progressive thinker, John Creighton has championed family wage jobs, public accountability and environmental sustainability as your Seattle Port Commissioner. Committed to improving competitiveness and trade, John has worked effectively on transportation and freight mobility issues important to the region.

John understands that one out of every three jobs in the region is based on international trade, yet the Port risks falling behind in its ability to drive economic development in King County. That’s why he has worked hard to: • Increase the number of family wage jobs generated by Port operations. • Ensure that critical Port infrastructure is built, maintained and protected with the least burden to taxpayers. • Implement real reform of Port operations, including more accountable contracting, internal audits, stronger staff oversight, and better controls and procedures. • Strengthen the Port’s commitment to the environment. • Explore productive areas of cooperation with other ports and regional governments in the Northwest.

John is working effectively to bring new energy and leadership to the challenges facing the Port. That’s why he has the support of a wide cross-section of our region’s leaders, from business, labor, environmental, community and many other sectors, Democrats, Republicans and Independents.

“Creighton has demonstrated a clear vision for the future of our Port and we’re confident he’ll continue to lead on environmental issues on the Commission.” — Washington Conservation Voters

“John sees the big picture and understands that keeping the Port competitive requires a responsible fiscal policy and a close eye on costs in the interests of both tenants and taxpayers. He has the leadership to deliver for working families, businesses and ultimately for the residents of King County.” — Brad Tilden, President, Alaska Airlines

Rob Holland

For Port Commission

Direct Port Experience

Rob is the only candidate in this position with diverse, hands-on Port experience—a nearly two decade career working with shipping companies, trucking and freight firms, trade and development offices, and industrial real estate.

Rob is uniquely qualified to bring accountability and a renewed focus on job creation, community protection and environmental stewardship to build a world class Port that drives our regional economy.

A Plan For Jobs

Supported by small business leaders, unions and waterfront industries, Rob is the only candidate with a detailed plan for job creation, with a focus on “green” jobs that make our Port not only competitive, but sustainable.

Caring for Communities

Rob will make sure that communities and neighborhoods around Port facilities are respected and treated fairly. Rob’s goal is to resolve issues BEFORE they become time and resource wasting problems.

Environmental Stewardship

Rob will follow through on commitments to make the Port a partner in Puget Sound cleanup, reduce greenhouse emissions, and meet clean air targets.

Endorsements That Matter

According to The Seattle Times, “The Port Commission needs people who are smart, who will do the work, and who have a broad view of the public’s interest and how the Port fits into it. We endorse Rob Holland.”

Also endorsed by Sierra Club, King County Democrats; King County Labor Council; Rep. Adam Smith; more than a dozen legislators, Mayors of Kent, SeaTac, Burien; firefighters; business leaders and hundreds more...

Occupation: Investment Properties Broker
Education: MBA from Thunderbird School of Global Management

David Doud will continue reforming the Port, ensure that the work of the Port is done ethically and fight to bring new jobs to King County. David is someone the voters can count on to make sure that Port contracts and leases benefit King County taxpayers.

The Port of Seattle links our state to the world’s economy – and it’s our best hope for creating jobs and getting our region out of this recession. David graduated from a top international business school, has worked here and abroad in business, and understands the importance of family wage jobs to our local economy.

Currently there are no Port Commissioners from outside Seattle, though the Port serves and derives taxes from all of King County. David’s county-wide endorsements demonstrate that he will represent the north, south and east reaches of the county as well as Seattle on the Commission. David has support from over a dozen mayors, including Bothell, Auburn, Bellevue, Enumclaw and Federal Way.

David Doud’s bipartisan endorsements include Democrats like former Governor Booth Gardner, former Seattle Mayors Charles Royer and Wes Uhlman, State Democratic Legislators Judy Clibborn, Deb Eddy, Mark Ericks, Larry Springer and civic leaders such as Ken Bunting and Nate Miles. Republican endorsements include Attorney General Rob McKenna, County Council members Kathy Lambert, Jane Hague, Reagan Dunn, and Peter von Reichbauer. Even Seahawks Quarterback Matt Hasselbeck supports him. Finally, David is endorsed by community leader Al Yuen, his other primary opponent.

Six unions who have labor contracts with the Port have raised over $120,000 to buy the Port Commission. David’s opponent is being supported by out-of-state labor organizations who want to control the Port. David is an independent voice, not someone in the back pocket of the union bosses. David Doud is running for the taxpayers of King County.

Occupation: Small business owner, Municipal League Chair (former), and Civil Engineer.

Education: University of Washington, BS Civil Engineering; American Marshall Memorial Fellow; Leadership Tomorrow.

Tom Albro has a wide spectrum of support in the region, from Washington Conservation Voters to the Eastside Business Alliance, from The Seattle Times to The Stranger. In addition, he has Allied Arts, the Board of Realtors, and is the only candidate for Port Commission to receive an “Outstanding” rating by the Municipal League.

In the primary, special interests bankrolled by out-of-state organized labor called themselves “Port Reform,” putting $120,000 in the bank to oppose candidates not partisan to them. But, they underestimated the public’s demand for impartiality and honest debate. Beware of their tactics in the General Election.

Tom won the primary by more than 30,000 votes. Tom Albro is an independent voice, not a career politician, nor a pawn of special interests.

Tom believes that rebuilding the public’s confidence in the Port is imperative, but its key role is being the engine that drives the region’s economy. He says: “Lots of other Ports want our business and our jobs – from Los Angeles to Vancouver to the Panama Canal: our job is to be more competitive and not be beaten by Ports with lower worker or environmental standards.”

Tom says, “I also have a strong, passionate commitment to reducing the Port’s environmental impacts by implementing smart operating practices, more innovation and wise stewardship.”

Local leaders from both sides of the aisle support Tom Albro: Gov. Dan Evans (former), Rep. Deb Eddy, Rep. Eric Pettigrew, Mayors Ava Frisinger (Issaquah), Grant Degginger (Bellevue), King County Council Member Peter von Reichbauer, and former Council Member Peter Steinbrueck (Seattle).

Tom knows how to move freight and people (owner of Seattle Monorail Services, former manager at UPS) and owned his first business before he was 30. He recently merged his local medical records business with a national firm, preserving the jobs locally.

The old ways of doing business at the Port of Seattle are over. It’s time to move forward with experienced leadership committed to reform, job creation and environmental stewardship.

Instead of another insider, we need an advocate who will open doors to trade, improve accountability, and be a true partner for Puget Sound cleanup.

I’ve served eight years as a legislator chairing critical trade and economic development committees, worked on the docks as a longshoreman and marine trade representative, and spent a lifetime fighting for good jobs and open, transparent government.

On the Port Commission I’ll be a strong, principled voice for change, and bring needed legislative and coalition building skills to this critical position. I’ll be a voice for all the people of King County, not a select few:

Transparency and Accountability

The Port has been distracted by scandal and fraud—undermining public confidence. I bring the oversight experience to ensure the Port does what the public asks and pays for. I’ll fight for policies that increase transparency!

Environmental Leadership

I’ll work to implement new technologies that reduce ship emissions, work with truckers to ‘green’ their trucks, make the Port a lead agency in the Duwamish cleanup, and help reduce jet noise and emissions.

Protect and Expand Jobs

I’ll fight to preserve and create jobs at the Port and in the many Port-dependent businesses. I will focus on long term competitiveness and preserve Fisherman’s Terminal and our urban industrial areas to protect jobs.

I’m proudly endorsed by King County Democrats, Senator Maria Cantwell, Congressmen Jay Inslee and Adam Smith, over 35 current and former State Legislators, Rogelio Riojas of SEAR MAR, Port Commissioner John Creighton, King County Labor Council, Seattle/King County Building and Construction Trades Council, environmental leaders and many, many others.

Thanks for the opportunity to serve as your Burien Councilmember and Deputy Mayor. During these past four years, I have met with many of you, hearing your concerns and hopes for Burien. I have worked to maintain public safety, advocated for a much needed community center, supported economic growth, and established relationships with public and private partners to help make the most of limited resources.

Burien continues to be a bright spot, even in these times of fiscal uncertainty. The city has managed its finances effectively and is in a strong position to weather the current economic downturn. I look forward to maintaining this strength. Town Square, City Hall, the Library and Jacob Ambaum Park - these are a few of the completed projects. But there is still much to be done.

I ask for your vote and the privilege of continuing to serve.

During my 2003-2007 term on the Burien City Council I promised I would work for you, and I delivered. Four new parks, Seahurst Beach Restoration, Town Square, and early childhood education funding.

Unfortunately, since leaving the council, Burien has become blighted with uncompleted projects, 1st Avenue reconstruction is 3 years overdue, storefronts empty, senior and community centers unbuilt, and police services cut.

Burien needs to get back on track. Zoning code errors have increased crime and perpetuated slumlike conditions, police services must be increased to perform crime prevention, not reaction; protect our most vulnerable citizens through a nonprofit agency service center, and enhance our environment by completing the Seahurst Beach restoration.

As a 3rd generation area resident, I realize the importance of preserving the special character of Burien. I'll work to Build a Better Burien, not another Bellevue.

During my 8 years as a Councilmember and Deputy Mayor, Burien has moved forward. Implementing our Town Square Vision, the strengthening of neighborhood emergency preparedness, the many festivals and summer programs, have made this a better place to live and raise a family.

I have worked hard to ensure stable property taxes, downtown business vitality and public safety. I worked to include the development principles for the Northeast Redevelopment Area in the adopted Comprehensive Plan of 1997, then helped implement them on Council. I look forward to continuing our forward progress.

I will work to replace crumbling sidewalks, storm water issues, balancing the budget, and keeping our city the wonderful family friendly community we all love. I will also work hard to ensure our city government is as transparent as our new council chambers.

I ask for you continued support and your vote.
Thank you for your support.

My family has lived in the Highline area for four generations. Burien is a great place to live and work, but it can be even better.

As a business attorney who has also worked in government, I will bring to the City Council knowledge of the law and public policy. I currently serve on the Burien Planning Commission and am the Chair of the Shoreline Advisory Committee.

Our City government must be responsive and accountable, ensuring that services are delivered efficiently and that every penny of your tax dollars is spent wisely. I will work to protect our environmental treasures and neighborhoods from inappropriate development. I am committed to improving Burien's business climate and increasing the number of family-wage jobs in our city.

I want to make certain that Burien is a city where all its residents and businesses have the opportunity to thrive. I ask for your vote.

Renton is a great community but these are challenging times. As a council member in the next few years there will be tough decisions made on city service priorities. I have been involved in making those decisions and will continue to work for our citizen’s benefit.

After joining the Council in 2000, I am proud to say that we are making real progress on critical issues such as economic development, neighborhood planning and transportation. One of the great achievements of this type of work is creating successful partnerships between the city and the communities. My priorities include continued engagement of the community to enhance our neighborhoods through planning and community services, revitalization of the Renton Highlands, economic development and transportation.

As an experienced councilmember, I have served as the Chair of the Community Services Committee and Vice-Chair of Planning and Development where I have worked hard to solve tough issues.

The City of Renton is facing important changes and I am excited about the opportunity to return and serve you. We have made great accomplishments and with your support, I will continue to bring a common sense approach to Renton.

Occupation: Renton Municipal Court Presiding Judge

It has been ten years since I was appointed to the Renton Municipal Court bench. I am as excited about moving into this next term as I was when I was initially appointed in 1998. The Renton Municipal Court is a place where members of our community and visitors come to resolve a variety of civil and criminal matters. It is our continuing goal to provide a court where individuals can expect quality customer service, an opportunity to be heard, and a fair and impartial judge deciding their individual case. To assist me in accomplishing this goal, the court is staffed with professional employees who share my dedication to excellence. Working together with these fine dedicated public servants we move into this next term with great enthusiasm. Thank you for your continued support. I am humbled and honored to serve as your city judge.
Seattle is a Charter City that has a Mayor/Council form of government. The Mayor, the City Attorney, and City Councilmembers are full-time, nonpartisan, elected officials, who are elected to four-year terms. Together the Mayor and Council are responsible for the conduct of City government. Elections for these positions are held in odd-numbered years.

CITY OF SEATTLE MAYOR

The Mayor of Seattle is the chief executive officer of the City and is charged with the enforcement of City and state law, of City contracts, and the maintenance of order. The Mayor directs and controls all subordinate officers of the City, unless otherwise provided for by the City Charter.

Departments in the City of Seattle include two major utilities, Seattle Public Utilities and Seattle City Light; administrative departments, such as the Department of Finance and the Department of Fleets and Facilities; public safety departments, such as the Police and Fire Departments; and social service providers, such as the Department of Housing and the Department of Human Services. All of these operate under the Mayor’s direction and control. In addition, the Mayor’s office is responsible for applying for federal funds and preparing the entire City budget.

The Mayor appoints, subject to the approval of the City Council, most of the heads of departments. He or she also appoints some of the members of several boards and commissions. The Mayor has the authority to veto ordinances passed by the City Council, but the Council may override such vetoes by a two-thirds majority vote.

The City Charter provides that the Mayor must be a United States citizen and registered to vote in the City of Seattle.

SEATTLE CITY ATTORNEY

The City Attorney is the City’s corporation counsel. He or she is the head of the Law Department, and appoints all of the Assistant City Attorneys, City Prosecutors, and other department staff. The City Attorney supervises and controls the litigation of the City, and any litigation in which the City or any of its departments are interested. He or she provides legal counsel to all City departments, and appointed and elected officials.

The City Charter provides that the City Attorney must be licensed to practice law in the State of Washington, and have been in the practice of law in the City of Seattle for at least four years before the election.

SEATTLE CITY COUNCIL

The Seattle City Council is the City’s elected legislature. The nine members determine City policy through the enactment of ordinances and the adoption of resolutions. The Council authorizes public improvements and expenditures, provides for public safety and health, adopts regulations, levies taxes, controls the finances and property of the City and performs many related legislative tasks. All ordinances enacted by the Council are subject to Mayoral veto, which may be overridden by a vote of six councilmembers.

The City Charter provides that City councilmembers must be United States citizens and registered to vote in the City of Seattle. In 2009, positions 2, 4, 6 and 8 are on the ballot.

WORKING FOR A CANDIDATE OR BALLOT ISSUE

If you are interested in working on a City candidate or ballot issue campaign, please call the SEEC at 206-684-8500 or visit our web site at www.seattle.gov/elections for campaign contact information.

MAKING CAMPAIGN CONTRIBUTIONS

The following City and State regulations apply to campaign contributions for City candidate and City ballot issue committees:

- Committees must report the receipt of both monetary and in-kind contributions.
- Candidate committees have a contribution limit of $700 per contributor per election cycle. Ballot issue committees do not have contribution limits except during the final 21 days before the election, when they may not accept contributions of more than $5,000 from any one contributor.
- Individuals who contribute more than $100 to a committee are required to disclose their occupation, the name of their employer, and the city and state where they are employed.
- Committees may not accept cash contributions of more than $60. Contributions of more than $60 in the aggregate must be made by check, money order, or credit card.
City of Seattle
Proposition No. 1
Low-Income Housing Levy

The City of Seattle’s Proposition 1 concerns a seven-year property-tax increase for low-income housing assistance. This proposition would fund affordable housing and other housing needs of low-income households. It authorizes collection of regular property taxes above limits otherwise allowed by state law. It allows $145,000,000 in additional taxes over seven years beginning in 2010, limited to $20,714,286 annually. In 2010, the increase would be up to $0.17 per $1,000 of assessed value. The City’s total regular property-tax rate would not exceed the state law limit of $3.60 per $1,000 of assessed value.

Should this housing levy be approved?

- Yes
- No

City Attorney’s Explanatory Statement

Proposition Number 1 would authorize a seven-year property tax increase to finance low-income housing, and otherwise provide for the housing needs of low-income households. The proposition defines low-income households based on guidelines published by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development. Most programs funded by the proposed levy serve households earning less than $17,700 for a single person and $20,250 for a family of two, or 30 percent of Seattle area median income.

Some form of housing levy has been in effect since 1981. The last housing levy passed in 2002 and expires this year. If approved, Proposition Number 1 would increase taxes levied in 2009 through 2015 and collected in 2010 through 2016. It would authorize Seattle to raise up to $145 million in additional property taxes over the seven-year period to pay for levy programs. The City could levy no more than $20,714,286 in additional taxes each year.

Proposal 1 includes a list of anticipated levy programs. These are:

- Rental Production and Preservation. The City anticipates spending $104 million to construct or preserve an estimated 1670 affordable rental housing units. At least 60 percent of the program funding would be reserved for households at or below 30 percent of area median income.

VOTE YES! HELP SENIORS AND THE MOST VULNERABLE
Since 1981, Seattle voters have provided housing for the most vulnerable in our city through the Housing Levy: low-income families, SENIORS, victims of domestic violence and people who are DISABLED or homeless. These apartments are guaranteed to be affordable for at least 50 years, helping tens of thousands of families and individuals.

VOTE YES! FOR A PROVEN SUCCESS
Seattle voters have consistently supported past housing levies, and this year it is perhaps the most important vote we will take. In a time of economic insecurity, more of our neighbors are vulnerable and our investment in affordable housing is critical. The $145 million proposal will cost the typical Seattle homeowner $5.50 per month, most of which we are already paying through the current Housing Levy.

Rebuttal of statement against

The Housing Levy protects seniors, people who are disabled or homeless, victims of domestic violence, and vulnerable families—those most in need in a challenging economy.

Opponents are mistaken. Median home prices rose 73% between 2002 and 2008 and rents increased 21% since 2004 and have moderated only slightly. Despite the recession, the cost of housing outpaces income for many low-income working families, and fixed-income seniors.

Larger proposals were rejected to keep programs targeted and maintain the same goals as the current Housing Levy. No new staff positions are created by this levy. For $2.00 more per month, the Housing Levy creates family-wage jobs, drives economic revitalization, and helps Seattle residents meet their basic housing needs.

Senior advocates, neighborhood leaders, unions, business leaders, and people across Seattle support the Housing Levy.

VOTE YES on Proposition 1.

$20,250. In addition, no more than 10 percent of program funding would be used for households earning 61 to 80 percent of area median income.

- Operating and Maintenance. The City anticipates spending $14.4 million to assist an estimated 220 low-income households by providing support to owners of Levy-funded housing for 20 years. This program is aimed at residents whose incomes are at or below 30 percent of area median income.

- Rental Assistance. The City anticipates spending about $4.2 million over seven years to provide rental assistance to an estimated 605 households each year. The program is intended to prevent eviction and homelessness, and help families earning no more than 50 percent of area median income. In 2009, 50 percent of area median income for a family of two is approximately $33,700.

- Homebuyer Assistance. The City anticipates spending up to $9.09 million to assist an estimated 180 first-time low-income homebuyers. Among other things, this program is intended to promote long-term housing affordability. This assistance would go to homebuyers earning less than 80 percent of area median income, which, for a family of two, is approximately $51,200.

- Acquisition and Opportunity Loans. The City anticipates spending $6.5 million for short-term loans to buy buildings or land for housing developments for an estimated 175 low-income households. Levy funds not yet needed for other levy programs will be used. Because this is a loan, the City expects that the $6.5 million will be repaid and that the money will be available for other levy programs.

- Administration. About $13.3 million in levy funds will be spent on the administration of all programs except the Operation and Maintenance Program. The Operation and Maintenance Program administrative costs will be paid with interest earnings on the levy funds and other revenues.

The City Council described these anticipated programs in Ordinance number 123013. The City Council could change the programs, consistent with the basic purposes of the proposition. The Council could add or delete programs, or change the amount of money for any program.

Administrative and Financial Plans covering all levy programs would be periodically submitted to the City Council for its review. Each plan would include amounts allocated to programs, criteria for funding projects, guidelines for loans or grants, requirements for project sponsors, progress and performance reports, program reviews to ensure that levy funds are used for their stated purposes, and guidelines for use of program income and investment earnings. The City Council could also request that the

Rebuttal of statement for

We can’t afford endless property tax increases, especially in the worst recession in 70 years.

$86,000,000 in 2002 (the current Housing Levy amount) is the equivalent of less than $103,000,000 today. That’s a $42,000,000 tax increase, AFTER inflation!

The proponents’ campaign is funded by the same levy recipients who will dominate the sham “Oversight Committee” -- the agencies and their employees, government employees, and bailed-out banks. (We are not accepting ANY campaign contributions!)

A NO vote won’t end all these government programs, but it WILL persuade the City Council and the new Mayor to offer a reasonable renewal, without triple overhead. It should also tell them to restrain themselves when they adopt their next budget and submit their future annual tax increase referenda.

Plains include other information. Upon review, the Council could approve or modify the Plans.

The proposition also would create an oversight committee to monitor and report on the progress of the levy programs. The committee would report on levy program accomplishments and problems. It would also make recommendations on the Administrative and Financial Plans and on actions to be taken, including additions or deletions of programs or amounts of money allocated to programs. Committee members would serve without compensation.

Proposition 1 would authorize the collection of more property taxes than would otherwise be allowed by the limits imposed under RCW 84.55. That state law generally limits the increase in property tax revenue to one percent over the highest amount that the City could have received in the prior year.

The taxes authorized by Proposition 1 would be in addition to the maximum regular property taxes to which the City would have been limited under state law without the proposition, plus any other authorized levy lid lifts. In the first year of collection (2010), the additional tax rate associated with the tax increase authorized by Proposition 1 for any property owner would be approximately 17 cents per thousand dollars of assessed value. The City’s total regular property-tax rate would not exceed the state law limit of $3.60 per $1,000 of assessed value. Taxes levied in 2016 for collection in 2017, and later tax levies, would be calculated as if Proposition 1 had not been passed.

Ordinance Number 123013, which placed Proposition 1 on the ballot, is reprinted in full in this voters’ pamphlet.

City of Seattle Proposition No. 1
Ordinance 123013

AN ORDINANCE relating to low-income housing; requesting that a special election be held concurrent with the November 2009 general election for submission to the qualified electors of the City of a proposition to lift the limit on regular property taxes under Chapter 84.55 RCW in order to authorize the City to levy additional taxes for low-income housing for up to seven (7) years; providing for interim financing pending tax receipts; creating a levy oversight committee; providing for implementation of programs with funds derived from the taxes authorized; and ratified and confirming certain prior acts.

WHEREAS, the $86,000,000 housing levy authorized in Ordinance 120823 and approved by the voters in 2002 (the “2002 Levy”) expires with the collection of 2009 property taxes; and

WHEREAS, the 2002 levy had a production goal of 1,718 rental units, and as of December 2008 the City has approved 2002 Levy funding for the production or preservation of 1,814 rental units, as well as assisted 211 first-time homebuyers and 4,146 renter households at risk of homelessness; and

WHEREAS, the $59,211,000 housing levy authorized in Ordinance 117711 and approved by the voters in 1995 had a production goal of 1,360 units, and over 2,632 units were actually produced or preserved by leveraging other funds; and

WHEREAS, the $49,975,000 housing levy authorized in Ordinance 112904 and approved by the voters in 1995 had a production goal of 1,000 units, and over 1,800 units were actually produced or preserved by leveraging other funds; and

WHEREAS, the $48,178,000 low-income elderly and handicapped housing bond issue authorized in Ordinance 110124 and approved by the voters in 1981 had a production goal of 1,000 units, and 1,198 units were actually produced or preserved; and

WHEREAS, substantial need remains for additional low-income housing and assistance to help low-income persons access housing they can afford, as documented in the Housing Appendix to the Comprehensive Plan and the City’s 2009-2012 Consolidated Plan; and

WHEREAS, Chapter 84.55 RCW generally limits the dollar amount of regular property taxes that a city may levy in any year, but RCW 84.55.050 allows a city to levy taxes exceeding such limit by majority approval of the voters, and allows a city to include in the ballot proposition a limit on the purpose for which the additional taxes levied will be used and to provide for the expiration of the additional taxing authority; and

WHEREAS, RCW 35.21.685 authorizes a city to assist in the development or preservation of publicly or privately owned housing for persons of low income by providing loans or grants of general municipal funds to the owners or developers of the housing, including loans or grants to finance the acquisition, construction or rehabilitation of low-income housing;

NOW THEREFORE,

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY OF SEATTLE AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Findings. The City Council makes the following findings and declares as follows:

A. The City of Seattle has insufficient safe, sanitary, and decent housing affordable to low-income households to meet the present and anticipated needs of such households, as documented in the Housing Appendix to the Comprehensive Plan and the City’s 2009-2012 Consolidated Plan.

B. Affordable rental housing for low-income households, including the homeless, other persons with special needs, families and seniors, often requires a commitment of City funds for development or preservation, or other forms of assistance.

C. Promoting home ownership through loans to low-income first-time homebuyers, coupled with homeownership counseling, helps create financial stability for families and mixed income neighborhoods.

D. Providing funding for acquisition or preservation of buildings or property for low-income housing is critical to take advantage of current housing market conditions.

E. Providing funding to help develop, preserve and finance housing affordable to low-income renters and homebuyers helps create jobs and generate significant income received by construction workers and local business owners.

F. The additional taxes to be levied under this ordinance will enable the City to provide for the housing needs of low-income households and thereby to fulfill the purposes of federal, State, County and City laws and policies, including without limitation the federal HOME Investment Partnerships Act, the State Growth Management Act (“GMA”), the Countywide Policies adopted under GMA, and the City’s Comprehensive Plan.

Section 2. Definitions. The following terms used in this ordinance shall have the definitions stated below unless the context otherwise clearly requires:

“Low-income housing” means housing that will serve “low-income households.”

“Household” means a single person, family or unrelated persons living together.

“Low-income household” means a household with income less than or equal to eighty percent (80%) of median income.

“Median income” means annual median family income for the statistical area or division thereof including Seattle for which median family income is published from time to time by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, or successor agency, with adjustments according to household size in a manner determined by the Director of Housing, provided that if an Administrative and Financial Plan adopted under Section 6 of this ordinance shall adopt a substitute definition of “median income,” the substitute definition shall apply.

To the extent permitted by applicable State law, income determinations may take into account such exclusions, adjustments and rules of computation as may be prescribed or used under federal housing laws, regulations or policies for purposes of establishing income limits, or as may be established in City planning documents consistent with federal laws, regulations or policies.

Section 3. Proposition to Authorize Levy of Additional Regular Property Taxes.

The City submits to the qualified electors of the City a proposition as authorized by RCW 84.55.050(1), to exceed the levy limitation on regular property taxes contained in RCW Chapter 84.55 for property taxes levied in 2009 through 2015 for collection in 2010 through 2016, respectively, raising up to $145,000,000 in aggregate over a period of up to seven years. The proposition shall be limited so that the City shall not levy more than $20,714,286 in additional taxes each year. All the levy proceeds shall be used for the purposes specified in Section 5.A. of this ordinance. The taxes authorized by this proposition will be in addition to the maximum amount of regular property taxes the City would have been limited to by RCW 84.55.010 in the absence of voter approval under this ordinance, plus other authorized lid lifts. If the voters approve the proposition submitted by this ordinance, the maximum total dollar rate for City of Seattle regular property taxes for collection in 2010 shall be a total maximum of $3.60 per thousand dollars of assessed valuation. The dollar amount of the City’s levy of regular property taxes in 2009 for collection in 2010, including the increase authorized under this section, shall be used for the purpose of computing the limitations for subsequent levies provided for in RCW Chapter 84.55, through and including the levy of taxes in 2015 for collection in 2016. Pursuant to RCW 84.55.050(5), the maximum regular property taxes that may be levied in 2016 for collection in 2017 and in later years shall be computed as if the limit on regular property taxes had not been increased under this ordinance.

Section 4. Levy Revenues.

A. Unless otherwise directed by ordinance, all revenues collected from the additional taxes authorized pursuant to this ordinance shall be deposited in the Low-Income Housing Fund to be used to finance housing for low-income households and otherwise to provide for the housing needs of such households. The Director of Executive Administration is authorized to create other subfunds or accounts within the Low-Income Housing Fund as may be needed or appropriate to implement the purposes of this ordinance.

B. Pending expenditure for the purposes authorized in this ordinance, amounts deposited in the Low-Income Housing Fund pursuant to this ordinance may be invested in any investments permitted by applicable law. All investment earnings on the balances shall be deposited into the Low-Income Housing Fund. Amounts received by the City from payments with respect to loans, recovery of grants, insurance proceeds or proceeds of sale or disposition of property (“program income”) shall be deposited into the Low-Income Housing Fund unless otherwise specified by ordinance. The Director of Housing shall use any investment earnings and program income derived from revenues collected from the additional taxes authorized pursuant to this ordinance consistent with the provisions of any Administrative and Financial Plan (“A & F Plan”) adopted by the City Council under Section 6 of this ordinance.

Section 5. Administration; Use of Proceeds.

A. The levy funds shall be used to finance affordable housing for low-income households, and otherwise to provide for the housing needs of low-income households.

B. The City Office of Housing, or such other department as may be designated by ordinance, shall administer programs funded with the additional taxes authorized pursuant to this ordinance. Programs adopted by the City Council for use of the funds derived under this ordinance shall be referred to as “Levy Programs.” Levy Programs shall be implemented consistent with Administrative and Financial Plans, adopted by the City Council under Section 6 of this ordinance.

C. Anticipated Levy Programs are shown in Exhibit 1, attached hereto. The City Council, upon recommendation of the Oversight Committee described in Section 9 of this ordinance, or upon recommendation of the Mayor, or on its own motion, may review the timing of the allocations to particular Levy Programs and make changes to the programs, including additions and deletions of programs and/or in the amount of funds allocated to any program, consistent with the basic purposes of this ordinance and applicable law. Administration funding shown on Exhibit 1 is intended to be used for administration of the use of levy proceeds for all programs except the Operating and Maintenance Program. Administration funding for the Operating and Maintenance Program, for the monitoring of funded projects over their lives, and for any use of loan repayments, may come from investment earnings or program income.

Section 6. Administrative and Financial Plans.

A. Every two years, or at such other intervals as the City Council may specify, the Director of Housing, or other department head as may be designated by the Mayor, shall prepare an A & F Plan covering all of the Levy Programs. Such plans shall cover periods commencing in 2010 and continuing through 2016, and thereafter if so specified by the City Council.

B. Unless otherwise requested by the City Council, each A & F Plan shall include: amounts allocated to programs, which may vary from year to year in order to respond to changing housing market conditions, leveraging opportunities or other circumstances; criteria for evaluating and selecting projects; guidelines for loans or grants, including any fees to be collected to defray costs; requirements for project sponsors; progress and performance reports on ongoing projects and for each Levy Program; program reviews to ensure that levy funds are used for their stated purposes; and guidelines for use of program income and investment earnings. An A & F Plan may include such other information as the Mayor or Director of Housing may deem appropriate or the City Council may request.

C. The A & F Plan shall be submitted to the City Council for its approval, with such modifications as the City Council may require. For purposes of future updates of the A & F Plan, all criteria, guidelines, and requirements contained in a previously approved A & F Plan shall remain in effect pending approval by City Council of a new A & F Plan, unless otherwise provided by ordinance.

Section 7. Appropriations and Funding Approvals. The City Council shall appropriate from the Low-Income Housing Fund, as part of the City budget or supplementally, such monies derived from the levies authorized in this ordinance as it deems necessary to carry out the Levy Programs. The Director of Housing or other department head as may be designated by the Mayor or City Council, or the designee of such director (any such director or designee is hereinafter referred to as “Director”), is authorized, for and on behalf of the City, to select projects for funding and to approve, make and modify loans, grants or other expenditures to carry out the Levy Programs, provided that such authority is subject to the appropriation of sufficient funds. The Director and his or her designees are further authorized, for and on behalf of the City, to execute and deliver such documents and instruments as he or she may determine to be necessary or appropriate to implement the financing of specific projects or to otherwise carry out the Levy Programs.
Section 8. Bonds and Notes. To the extent permitted by applicable law the City may issue bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness payable wholly or in part from the proceeds of the additional taxes authorized under this ordinance, and apply such tax proceeds to the payment of principal of, interest on, and premium (if any) on such bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness and to the payment of costs associated with them.

Section 9. Oversight Committee.
A. Conditioned upon voter approval of the ballot proposition submitted by this ordinance, there is established an Oversight Committee for the purpose of monitoring the progress of Levy Programs and reporting to the Mayor and City Council on the progress of Levy Programs. The Committee shall inform the Mayor and the City Council of Levy Program accomplishments and problems and make recommendations on the A & F Plans and on actions to be taken, including additions to or deletions of programs or amounts of funds allocated to the several programs, so that Levy Programs may be conducted in a timely and efficient manner. The Committee may elect officers and establish rules of procedure, including rules establishing what shall constitute a quorum. The Director of Housing or such other department head as may be designated by the Mayor shall provide the Committee such information as is necessary for the Committee to determine the status of individual programs and projects. The Oversight Committee shall consist of fifteen (15) voting members, selected as follows: one (1) shall be a City employee appointed by the Mayor or his designee; one (1) shall be a City employee appointed by the City Council; the remainder shall be persons outside City government, of whom six (6) shall be appointed by the Mayor, and five (5) by the City Council. The appointing authority shall remove any member who is absent from two or more consecutive meetings without cause. The appointing authority may remove any member for other good cause shown or to ensure compliance with subsection B of this section.

B. At all times no more than three (3) Committee members appointed by the Mayor and no more than two (2) Committee members appointed by the City Council shall be an officer, director, board member, trustee, partner or employee of an entity that receives or competes for funding under this ordinance; or be a member of the immediate family of, or an individual residing with, an officer, director, board member, trustee, partner or employee of an entity that receives or competes for funding under this ordinance; or be a person seeking or having an arrangement concerning future employment with an entity that receives or competes for funding under this ordinance. For the purposes of this ordinance an individual’s “immediate family” means his or her spouse, domestic partner, child, child of a spouse or domestic partner, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, parent, parent of a spouse or domestic partner, a person for whom the individual acts as a guardian, or a person claimed as a dependent on the individual’s most recent federal income tax return. Subject to the preceding sentence and applicable law, an individual serving as an officer, director, board member, trustee, partner or employee of an entity that receives or competes for funding under this ordinance, or who has an interest in such an entity, shall not thereby be disqualified from serving on the Committee, but shall fully disclose any such relationships and shall not vote on any matter in which the interest of such entity is directly involved. For purposes of this section, “entity” does not include a City department or office.

C. Upon the resignation, retirement, death, incapacity or removal of a Committee member, the authority appointing such member may appoint a replacement for the balance of the term. Committee members shall serve without compensation.

D. The City Council shall prescribe by ordinance or resolution the terms of office of Committee members, which may be staggered to provide continuity, and the initial committee members shall be selected within six months after voter approval of the proposition submitted by this ordinance. The City Council may prescribe such other rules relating to the operation of the Committee as shall be necessary or appropriate.

E. The Oversight Committee shall continue in existence through 2016, and thereafter if so provided by ordinance.

Section 10. Election - Ballot Title. The City Council directs that the City Clerk file this ordinance with the Director of Elections of King County, Washington, as ex officio supervisor of elections, requesting that the Director of Elections call and conduct a special election in the City in conjunction with the state general election to be held on November 3, 2009, for the purpose of submitting to the qualified electors of the City the proposition set forth in this ordinance. The City Clerk is directed to certify to the King County Director of Elections the ballot title approved by the City Attorney in accordance with his responsibilities under RCW 29A.26.071. The following ballot title is submitted to the City Attorney for his consideration:

Seattle’s Proposition 1 concerns increased property taxes for 7 years for low-income housing assistance. This proposition would fund affordable housing and provide for other housing needs of low-income households, as provided in Ordinance XXX. It would authorize collection of regular property taxes above RCW 84.55 limitations. This proposition allows $145,000,000 in additional taxes over seven years beginning in 2010, limited to $20,714,286 annually. The 2010 regular tax rate would be limited to $3.60 per $1,000 assessed value, including about $.17 in additional taxes.

Should this levy lid lift be approved?
Yes
No
Those in favor shall vote “Yes”; those opposed shall mark their ballots “No”.

Section 11. Severability. If any one or more provisions of this ordinance shall for any reason be held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect any other provision of this ordinance or the levy of additional taxes authorized, but this ordinance shall be construed and enforced as if such invalid provisions had not been contained herein, except that if any provision shall be held invalid by reason of its extent or the range of persons eligible to benefit therefrom, then such provision shall be deemed to be in effect to the extent permitted by law and to benefit only such class of persons as may lawfully be granted the benefit thereof.

Section 12. Ratification. The City Clerk’s certification to the King County Director of Elections of the proposition referred to in Section 10 and any other acts taken after the passage of this ordinance and consistent with its authority, are ratified and confirmed.

Section 13. Effectiveness. Those portions of this ordinance providing for the submission of a ballot proposition to the voters shall take effect and be in force immediately upon the approval by the Mayor; or if returned to the Council by the Mayor unsigned, then immediately upon its return; or if not approved and returned by the Mayor within 10 days after presentation, then on the 11th day after its presentation to the Mayor; or if vetoed by the Mayor, then immediately after its passage over his veto. All provisions of this ordinance that have not taken effect on an earlier date shall take effect and be in force thirty (30) days from and after the Mayor’s approval of this ordinance, but if this ordinance shall not be approved and returned by the Mayor within ten (10) days after presentation, such provisions shall take effect as provided by Municipal Code Section 1.04.020.

Passed by the City Council the 15th day of June, 2009, and signed by me in open session in authentication of its passage this 15th day of June, 2009.

I'm running for mayor because I've seen what can happen when people come together around common goals. Here's my story:

After graduating from UW law school, I joined a Seattle law firm and made partner. My wife and I loved our Greenwood neighborhood, but we worried about our children's safety because we had no sidewalks. City officials didn't seem to care about our concerns, so I worked with my neighbors to organize our community and get sidewalks built. Buoyed by our success, we worked to revitalize our local business district.

Talking to people in other neighborhoods, I realized we weren't alone in our frustration with the lack of progress. I decided to leave the law firm to form a non-profit - the Seattle Great City Initiative - to bring people together, find common ground, and get results.

We've had success. We delivered neighborhood improvements and passed the 2008 Parks Levy.

Let's make Seattle an even better place to live.

These tough economic times call for smart fiscal policy and experienced, effective management. I have a proven track record of successful management and executive experience to deliver major projects on time and on budget, grow our economy, create jobs and keep moving our city forward. Together, we can make Seattle an even better city to live, work and play.

I have the progressive vision, leadership skills, and management experience to move Seattle forward.

I was born and raised in the Pacific Northwest, and my wife and I are raising our family in the Wallingford neighborhood in Seattle. Currently, I am Vice President of Operations Strategy at an international communications carrier, where I help the company thrive by fostering innovation and driving efficiencies.

I want to bring this cooperative approach to the mayor's office. Here are my priorities:

Transportation - As a Sierra Club leader, I worked for great transit. Now we need to connect Seattle neighborhoods to the new light rail line – with new mass transit on dedicated rights of way that won't get stuck in traffic. You vote for it. We'll build it.

Education - Schools need our help. As mayor, city government will become a partner with the school system – sharing resources and reducing overhead.

Jobs and Economy – President Roosevelt created the CCC. Seattle can learn from history. We need a jobs program to put people to work on things like weatherizing homes, building sidewalks, and improving parks. We need to take care of our local streets and bridges and invest in the next generation of infrastructure - fiber optic Internet to make us competitive and reduce the digital divide.

Finally, I am against the $4.2 billion waterfront tunnel. It’s a bad deal and threatens all our other priorities:

1) It's the largest tax increase in city history – putting Seattle under mountains of debt for decades.
2) State law holds Seattle taxpayers responsible for ALL cost overruns.
3) It has no on-ramps or off-ramps downtown and no dedicated transit component.
4) Includes $400 million in new tolls – about $6.00 each way.

Go to my website for additional policy proposals and to share your ideas and feedback.

If we work together, Seattle wins. I'd appreciate your vote.

Let's make Seattle an even better place to live.

In good times and bad, we should have confidence that our city government is using our tax dollars judiciously and in a way that matches our values and priorities. That begins with a mayor who is a proven, effective manager who solves problems, makes difficult decisions, and listens to the people.

I will work with the City Council, neighborhood organizations, our regional partners, and most importantly, the people of Seattle, to create an open and accessible city government focused on Seattle's priorities and moving Seattle forward.

- Transportation – Provide real oversight and develop comprehensive traffic solutions to ease congestion.
- Seniors – Seattle shouldn't just be a great place to grow up but also a great place to grow old. I will work to increase senior services and better support senior centers.
- Public safety – Empower and work with neighborhood leadership to protect our community, give our police and first responders the resources they need and expand the gang unit to stop youth violence.
- Grow Seattle’s economy – Work with small and large businesses alike to make Seattle a great place to do business and create jobs for our working families. Partner with our colleges and universities to create public/private partnerships to help develop small businesses.
- Move Seattle forward – Work with regional and federal partners to bring infrastructure investment projects to Seattle and execute those projects on time and on budget.

We can do better as a City. I believe you deserve better. Please join me in moving Seattle forward.

Thank you for voting Joe Mallahan for Seattle Mayor.

info@holmesforseattle.com
As your City Attorney, Pete Holmes will work to make Seattle government open, responsive and attentive to your priorities.

Endorsed by the Seattle Times, King County and local Democrats, GLBT leadership and advocates for open government and individual liberties, Pete Holmes is an effective advocate for the people of Seattle. Earning his B.A. at Yale and his J.D. at Virginia, Pete is a seasoned litigator with 25 years of legal expertise—24 in Seattle—in business, insolvency and environmental law. Pete combines diverse professional experience with a commitment to equality and justice, having chaired Seattle’s first Office of Professional Accountability Review Board. Thanks to his leadership, last year 29 improvements were made to the Seattle Police Department’s misconduct investigation system.

Pete will bring transparency, accountability and a spirit of public service to the City Attorney’s Office.

No New Jail; Genuine Public Safety
Pete will work to avoid the shame of building a new jail while closing neighborhood schools, seeking alternatives to incarceration for nonviolent misdemeanors. He will fully support mental health and community courts, and expand crime reduction programs like Clean Dreams. Pete will emphasize tough sentencing for real criminals—those who threaten our personal safety and property.

Sound Legal Counsel—Saving Money and Protecting Our Quality of Life
From loss of the Sonics to managing our First Responders, Seattle cannot afford misguided lawsuits. Environmental and labor rules require enforcement, while money-wasting nightclub “stings” expose taxpayers to civil liability. Seattle needs a City Attorney who understands legal strategy, risk management and the art of settlement.

The Right Priorities
As your City Attorney, Pete will be an advocate for the people of Seattle, not just City Hall. A proven leader committed to public service, Pete will make you—the citizen—his most important client.

The Seattle Times says Holmes has “excellent experience to become a city attorney”—one sensitive to the people’s rights as well as the needs of their government.”

The Broadest Support
King County and the 11th, 36th, 37th and 43rd LD Democrats; Metropolitan Democratic Club; State Senators Ed Murray and Ken Jacobsen; State Representatives Scott White, Mary Lou Dickerson, Eric Pettigrew, and Bob Hasegawa; City Councilmember Nick Licata and Peter Steinbrueck; IATSE Local 15 and IBEW Local 46.

The need for change doesn’t stop in the Mayor’s Office: Pete Holmes will bring reform and fresh focus to the City Attorney’s Office, too!

During this time of change, Seattle needs an experienced, caring City Attorney with a vision for keeping you safe. Based on my record, the Municipal League has rated me as “outstanding.” The Seattle Times described me as “smart, aggressive, plainspoken, and a bulldog in defense of the city.” The Seattle Police Officers Guild, Washington Conservation Voters, the 34th District Democrats, prosecutors, former judges, and public defenders; private attorneys; local and state elected officials; and Labor have endorsed me.

I believe in law and order by holding offenders accountable, tempered with caring. I was raised with six family members in a one-bedroom apartment in the Bronx. My dad, a combat veteran, suffered from alcoholism and died in a fall, leaving my mom to raise four kids. From an early age, I saw homelessness, addiction, and crime and vowed to do something about it.

To protect you, I have:

-Reduced the cycle of arrest and jail time for low-risk, repeat offenders by creating the nationally recognized Seattle Community Court saving over $1,000,000 in jail costs and providing over 30,000 hours of community service to your neighborhoods.

-Won over $1,000,000 in federal grants to pay for a community prosecutor in every precinct; expand Community Court citywide; drive justice system efficiencies; improve domestic violence prosecution; and deter street drug dealers.

-Partnered with public defenders, mental health treatment providers, and Municipal Court judges to manage low-risk mentally ill offenders in the community instead of in jail.

-Championed better laws for walker, runner and bicycle safety.

In the next four years, I plan to build on these successes by:

-expanding the Drug Market Initiative beyond the Central Area and into Southeast Seattle and other areas, while balancing zero tolerance for drug dealing with giving low level dealers the opportunity to change.

-establishing a treatment court to help defendants addicted to drugs or alcohol help themselves and the community.

-building a family justice center to provide a safe place for domestic violence victims to get help and protection.

With a new Mayor coming into office, a City Attorney with my experience and caring is vital to keeping you safe. Please vote for me, Tom Carr.

Rated “OUTSTANDING” by the Municipal League. Richard Conlin is an innovative neighborhood leader who puts his experience to work for all of Seattle. He listens and creates opportunities to get things done that make a difference in our lives. He works hard to ensure that Seattle makes effective decisions to protect and improve our communities and our environment. Richard Conlin makes change happen.

“Thank you for the honor of serving as your Councilmember. Tough times require experienced leadership and a fresh approach for our future. You can depend on me to do everything I can to bring economic health back to Seattle, take care of those who are left out and left behind, and move Seattle to a new and greener economy.

My work demonstrates that Seattle can make smart choices to have great neighborhoods and a thriving downtown, connected by transit, bicycle, and pedestrian ways and well maintained roads. I have a record of accomplishment — initiating new programs to reduce waste, creating affordable housing, fighting hunger and supporting community gardens through my Local Food Action Initiative, and keeping transportation improvements on track.

I share your commitment to our neighborhoods. We’ve worked together to make sure people all around Seattle have parks, community centers, libraries, and excellent fire and police services — and that you get value from every dollar the City spends.

My wife Sue Ann and I have lived in Madrona for 28 years. Our three children graduated from Seattle Public Schools. I ask for your vote, and pledge to continue working with you and for you to keep Seattle a place we are proud to call home.”

My priorities include:

- Bring back Seattle’s economy, create jobs, and support local businesses.
- Work for effective human services, clean air and water, and alternatives to dependence on imported oil.
- Get light rail to Northgate, the airport, and the Eastside.
- Make government open and transparent.
- Replace the Alaskan Way Viaduct and SR520 Bridge before disaster happens.
- Require fiscal accountability on all projects.

I am running for City Council to bring an effective, decisive and pragmatic approach to City Hall. The City Council has a reputation for advancing policies that have little to do with the “kitchen table” issues most families face in our city. Families and working Seattleites are hurting: our local economy isn’t creating jobs, our city is plagued by rising crime and we continue to idle in traffic. The current City Council does not have a vision to tackle these big issues, nor a plan to get us moving again.

My values are your progressive Seattle values. On the City Council, I will work for:

- Economic Opportunity to make it through these tough times and lay the foundation in which our small businesses can thrive and grow the next great economy—one that will provide a better quality of life throughout the city.
- Affordable, Safe Neighborhoods, because we must make sure Seattle continues to be a great place to live and raise our families. This means building enough housing stock to keep prices affordable. It means creating safe, walkable communities with vibrant business districts. And it means protecting the character of our neighborhoods by involving our communities in the planning process from the start.

Transportation Solutions, because it’s time for Seattle to plan and build the infrastructure that will serve this city for the next century, with safe and reliable transportation options connecting our walkable communities to each other and to a strong and thriving downtown core. Unlike the debate on the viaduct replacement, I’ll make sure citizens are heard on transportation solutions to meet the needs of everyone.

I believe it’s time for the city to create a strategic plan to support small businesses and spur their growth. Having worked as a Solutions Architect for the last six years, I know how to deliver projects on time and within budget. I have a track record of cutting through the red tape and reducing costs.

I am a third generation Seattle native. My partner and I are raising twins adopted from a drug-addicted mother and we live in West Seattle’s green-built High Point neighborhood.

Seattle needs a strong, proven leader who will unite people to solve problems. Sally Bagshaw is that leader, working and volunteering for three decades on issues that matter.

Sally is a former public school mom and small business advocate. She retired as Chief Civil Deputy in the King County Prosecutor’s Office, where she led a division of nearly 100 lawyers and legal staff. Earlier in her career she was head of KC-Metro’s Legal Department, served as Minority and Women’s Business Officer for the University of Washington and worked as an Assistant Attorney General at both the UW and WSU.

Throughout her career, Sally has gotten results: she is the leader who advocates for innovative criminal justice programs, supports strong public schools, protects neighborhoods and parks, and works to end traffic gridlock.

Sally has earned broad support throughout the city because she listens. She will bring her record of positive management, dedication to her community and compassion for people to City Council.

We have to make Seattle more affordable.

For too long, politicians in this city have ignored the will of the people with wrongheaded and costly projects:

• The most expensive option for replacing the viaduct, with huge possible cost overruns
• $50 million for a street car for South Lake Union with few riders
• A $300 million fix for Mercer Street without improving traffic flow
• A possible $200 million for a new city jail while we are closing schools.

My priorities:

• Make a serious commitment to protecting and increasing our supply of affordable housing
• Develop a regional transportation plan that connects our neighborhoods with more bus routes
• Replace the expensive redo of Mercer and redirect our resources to rebuilding our neighborhood infrastructure

For a Stronger Economy...
Sally will help diversify and strengthen Seattle’s economy, encouraging growing industries like biotechnology and clean energy. She will make the city a better partner with business and labor to protect and increase family wage jobs.

…Vital Neighborhoods...
A longtime neighborhood leader, Sally will promote diverse, affordable and well-designed neighborhoods to support our quality of life.

…Excellent Schools...
Sally will coordinate with the Seattle Public Schools to wisely use our resources. There’s no excuse for overcrowding some schools while displacing kids from their neighborhoods.

…Parks and Open Space Protection...
Sally will follow through on city commitments to fund parks, protect streams and open spaces, and clean Puget Sound.

…Safe Streets...
Sally will push for more foot patrols to reduce crime, and work closely with former colleagues at the County to wisely use our public resources.

…Protecting the Vulnerable
Sally started an award-winning legal clinic in King County for homeless women. She will fight to maintain strong human services.

Endorsements!

I have worked for 30 years as a social justice advocate in Seattle to make sure all voices are heard. As Deputy Director of the Church Council of Greater Seattle, I led an urban program committed to building and preserving low-income housing, providing shelter for those who are homeless, working for social change, and advocating for human rights. I co-founded the Downtown Emergency Service Center, Common Ground, the Seattle Displacement Coalition, and the Interfaith Task Force on Homelessness. I have also served as an organizer and board member for Real Change. Recently, I have taken my experience to the classroom as adjunct faculty at Antioch University-Seattle, teaching courses on community organizing, homelessness, and spirituality & social action.

We have a progressive tradition in Seattle and strong sense of community in our neighborhoods. We need to keep that character alive and well in the 21st Century.

I will work with you to keep our progressive values, strengthen our neighborhoods, and refocus our priorities on essential city government services. I ask for your vote.
Dear Voter,

With your support I look forward to working with a new Mayor and City Council. Some things will not change. I will continue as a strong, effective, and tireless leader with the common sense to ask questions before the bill comes due.

Seattle’s citizens have come to expect that perspective and vision from me. I take my role as a legislator and representative of the people to heart. It is a job that I feel honored to do working everyday in pursuit of the common good.

My consistent record of promoting legislation that benefits communities throughout Seattle includes:

• Amending the Mayor’s public safety budget to add new police officers for the first time since the late 1970’s;
• Funding critical transportation improvements for the Spokane Street Project ensuring West Seattle mobility when Alaskan Way Viaduct work begins;
• Developing a $3 million Strategic Pedestrian Safety Initiative including $1.5 million for new sidewalks and sidewalk repair;

But when public dollars are proposed for projects that make vague promises without clear evidence I will continue to ask the tough questions, and get results.

The Seattle Weekly says about my work on the council: “He’s often the lone voice of dissent when his City Council colleagues are willing to sign off on questionable public policy.”

Our city faces challenges and requires creative and tested leadership to resolve the many demands on limited resources. I will use my energy to ensure true progressive public benefits:

• Better public transportation through more reliable bus service
• Safer neighborhoods through more foot and bike police patrols, while speaking out to protect civil rights
• A healthier more sustainable environment - sidewalks, bike lanes, green building codes and community gardens
• Pursuing policies to help small local business thrive
• Providing more affordable housing for those most in need
• Promoting vibrant cultural institutions, libraries and community centers, major art institutions and neighborhood cultural districts.

My vision for a prosperous and sustainable Seattle has earned diverse endorsements - 15 of Seattle’s state legislators, County Councilmembers Bob Ferguson and Larry Gossett, former Governors Mike Lowry and Albert Rosellini, local unions representing the Teamsters, Service Employees, Police, Transit Operators, and the sole endorsement of the Sierra Club.

I’d appreciate your vote too. Join me in making Seattle a city that grows with grace, respect and fairness towards all.

Sincerely,

Councilmember Nick Licata

Dear Voter,

With your support I look forward to working with a new Mayor and City Council. Some things will not change. I will continue as a strong, effective, and tireless leader with the common sense to ask questions before the bill comes due.

Seattle’s citizens have come to expect that perspective and vision from me. I take my role as a legislator and representative of the people to heart. It is a job that I feel honored to do working everyday in pursuit of the common good.

My consistent record of promoting legislation that benefits communities throughout Seattle includes:

Jessie’s background includes: King County Parks executive; Center for Women & Democracy operations manager; consultant for Central Area, Eastlake, Denny Triangle, Wallingford neighborhood plans; Boards of Directors for City Year, Ballard Food Bank and the Women’s Political Caucus; Peace Corps, West Africa; Seattle University graduate.

Jessie Israel – priorities that matter

Jessie will make sure Seattle’s City Council delivers on the basics, with a vision toward our future success.

Environment: Smart investments in energy efficiency and the environment that will create jobs and attract a new, clean energy economy to Seattle.

Public Safety: Increasing neighborhood patrols, funding the gang unit, and tackling the increasingly hostile environment in downtown’s public spaces while prioritizing real solutions to our human services needs.

Reliable Transportation: A long-term vision for moving people and goods with light rail, buses, bicycle paths, sidewalks, and maintaining roadways.

Jessie Israel – a leader we can work with and trust

Jessie is endorsed by: Seattle Times • Washington Conservation Voters • Women’s Political Caucus • Cascade Bicycle Club • Aki Foundation (of the Greater Seattle Chamber of Commerce) • Seattle Firefighters Local 27 • Seattle Police Officers Guild • King County Realtors • Rental Housing Association • Building Trades Council • Union of Painters and Allied Trades • 34th District Democrats • King County Young Democrats • West Seattle Democratic Women • Allied Arts • Friends of Seattle • Seattle Transit Blog • and the Municipal League rates Jessie: Very Good!
I believe Seattle is a beautiful city with wonderful neighborhoods, great diversity, and rich culture. But critical needs aren’t being met.

We need affordable housing for families, schools that serve our children, and transportation that’s efficient and reliable.

Is it any surprise that our city faces a $72 million budget deficit when not one current Council member has experience or training in finance?

I’m running for City Council because Seattle needs someone who understands the issues and has the financial background to make a difference. I earned my MBA at the University of Washington and have 10 years experience as Chief Financial Officer of a Seattle law firm. I would be the only Council member with the fiscal knowledge to bring real oversight to the city’s budget process.

Oversight must start with the $4 billion downtown deep-bore tunnel to replace the Alaskan Way Viaduct.

I’m running for City Council to make sure your tax dollars are used wisely. Keeping Seattle affordable is near to my heart. I want all our children to be able to live here when they grow up. Much of my work has involved creating or preserving affordable housing by successfully bringing together non-profits, government and investors.

Growing up in Seattle, I learned about housing from the ground up, beginning with my first job as an apartment house janitor. After Terry and I got married we lived modestly and saved enough over the years to buy four apartment buildings. We keep rents reasonable and provide nice places to live for our terrific tenants.

Jobs & the Economy
The City must work better to keep high-paying jobs here and attract new industries. I’ll make sure we create opportunity, rebuilding a job-growing economy.

The Viaduct Replacement
Some say don’t build a tunnel, just tear down the Viaduct -- dumping 110,000 cars and trucks a day into downtown traffic.

The deep-bore tunnel is a bad deal for Seattle. It doesn’t connect to downtown and it won’t serve 60 percent of the people who use the viaduct today. It won’t meet our long-term transportation needs.

We’ve already rejected the tunnel — 70 percent of Seattle voters said no in the 2007 election. But politicians want to build it anyway and stick us with the bill, through higher taxes or increased rates and fees.

As a City Council member I will fight for better alternatives. I know how because I’ve done it before.

As Chair of the Sierra Club, I stood up to politicians who said we had to build 182 miles of new highways to get light rail. Together we rejected that plan. Today, we’re laying the foundation for cost effective and sustainable transportation.

As a former CFO, I know we can have smart policies that are good for the economy, nurture our communities, and protect our environment.

The future for Seattle that I envision includes:

- No downtown deep-bore tunnel.
- Affordable housing, so teachers and firefighters can live in the communities they serve.
- Reliable transportation, where people can get around with just a transit pass or a bicycle.
- Great neighborhood schools, so every child can get a good education — no matter where they live.
- Job opportunities through smart policies that enable businesses to thrive.

Please vote for me, Mike O’Brien, for Seattle City Council position 8. I will represent your interests and work for the priorities we all care about most.

Robert Rosencrantz

The tunnel wasn’t my first choice. But the state funding is in place to build it. We have to do something. Let’s get started.

Seniors, homeowners and renters must not be stuck with the bill. Opening up the waterfront will be a goldmine for developers and downtown property-owners. I will make sure they pay any cost overruns.

Actively Involved Citizen
For many years I have actively served on boards or as a volunteer, including:

- Friends of the Cedar River Watershed
- Children’s Hospital Citizen’s Advisory Committee
- Church Council’s Interfaith Task Force on Homelessness
- Thornton Creek Alliance
- Fort Lewis, working with wounded Soldiers
- Tabor 100, empowering minority-owned businesses
- AIDS Housing of Washington

As a past Community Council president, I know how hard it is for neighborhoods to have their voices heard at City Hall. If elected, I’ll listen. My door will always be open.

Rated “Outstanding” by the Municipal League
“[Robert Rosencrantz] has made numerous outstanding contributions requiring skills related to the office, is a path-finding and respected leader, and brings knowledge and creativity to issues facing the office.”

I’m Robert Rosencrantz. I ask for your vote.

I was born and raised in Tukwila. I have a daughter in Tukwila elementary, and a son soon to start kindergarten there. I have volunteered in the United States Marine Corps to serve our nation, and now I would like a chance to volunteer for our wonderful city to help make it the best place it can be! Since I have children of my own, I am excited to be part of Tukwila’s plan for the next 20 years.

Since I’m not a politician, I will look at the policies that are before the council with fresh eyes and new ideas! I will leverage citizens concerns to create solutions!

My focus will be to strengthen: Public safety Police and Fire Emergency preparedness Community involvement

By listening to the citizens of Tukwila and looking at each issue on an individual basis we can make a positive difference for us all.

I am proud to serve as President of the Seattle School Board, governing a good school district on its way to becoming a great school district. Over the past four years, I have sought to improve academic performance, spend taxpayers’ money wisely and sustainably, reform district policy and priorities to align with children’s needs, and increase parent engagement and confidence in our schools. As we move forward, I will continue to work hard toward these important goals.

It is critical, however, that as a Board and as a community, we set our sights higher still. Seattle needs high quality schools with innovative programs in every neighborhood. We need high expectations and rigorous standards in every school. We must hold all employees accountable. We must foster engagement, public-private partnerships, and healthy debate on our Board and across our city.

The goals of our Strategic Plan, “Excellence for All,” can produce consistent, high quality instruction across the District. The heart of this plan is a performance accountability system for teachers, principals, administrators and schools. We must revitalize our low performing schools quickly and decisively. We must measure the quality of our work and reward excellence.

Change is difficult but worth the effort. All our children, who collectively are Seattle’s future, must be given the tools for success so that they may thrive in a challenging local and global economy.

I will continue to listen to students, parents, taxpayers, staff, my fellow elected officials and community leaders across the city to guide my decisions. Great schools require that we all work together. Thank you for the chance to serve our wonderful children. Please support our public schools in every way you can!
We need to reframe the conversation. This is about an achievement gap—a city not providing a 21st Century education for all our children. Since 1992, Kay Smith-Blum has created community-building strategies that have generated thousands of volunteer hours and poured millions of dollars into our Seattle Public Schools. She knows we can bridge the gap by engaging ALL stakeholders NOW.

We must hear the community’s voice PRIOR to policy proposals that affect the client—our students. We must reach out to new parents and provide pre-school for economically strapped children. From kindergarten on we need: • Foreign language • Rigorous academics • Daily PE • Arts & Music curriculum • Courses for fiscal literacy, citizenship, vocational & entrepreneurial training, environmental and wellness training.

Simple, but bold, changes would include teaching core academics during the hours when students actually learn according to age and creating public/private partnerships so ALL students are prepared for a global marketplace.

Kay and Butch Blum, are Capitol Hill residents, with 3 sons, all of whom attended Seattle Public Schools. Kay has balanced multi-million dollar budgets since age 23 and been a business owner for 28 years. She has served on the PTSA boards of Montlake, WMS and Garfield.

Kay has the best Municipal League rating for her position, rated Very Good. She is endorsed by The Seattle Times, The STRANGER, the Young Dem’s of King County, The KCDCC Exec board, the 43rd Dem’s, the Hon. Mary Lou Dickerson, Hon. Jamie Pederson, Hon. Ruth Kagi, Hon. Bobbe Bridge, Hon. Skip Priest, Hon. Jeanne Kohl-Welles, former SSD Directors Don Nielsen and Barbara Schaad Lamphere, Trish Millines Dziko, TAF founder, Tina Podlodowski, James Kelly, Urban League President, Debbi Brainerd, Islandwood founder, community leaders Gayle Johnson, Craig Dawson, Oscar Desper and numerous teachers, principals and activists in Seattle Schools.

Occupation: Butch Blum Inc., CEO (former Neiman Marcus Executive)

Education: University of Texas, Bachelors of Business Administration, Marketing Major

Mary Bass believes public education is the cornerstone of our democracy. It enables our students to make choices and decisions which lead to a successful life and society.

For eight years, Mary has been a model community leader. Her leadership has connected families to our schools. She has worked tirelessly for fiscal accountability and oversight and for the means to close the achievement gap.

She has taken strong positions to serve all children, advocating for: the strongest high school math program; a neighborhood student assignment plan which build enduring school communities; the implementation of each academic audit’s recommendation for Special Education, Alternative Education, and Bilingual Education; increased state funding (in 12 years Washington State has gone from #26 to #46 in nation); and the implementation of the strongest water remediation plans in the nation. In her advocacy, she has remained resolute.

Corporatization is the single most concerning, overarching issue public education is facing today. As Board President, she led the Board to a 6-1 vote against statewide charter schools and fought against school closures three separate times.

Given another four years, Mary Bass will: • demand that challenging academic programs be placed across the city in all neighborhoods • promote bi-lingualism and multi-lingualism in our schools • ensure that all students get the necessary tools to excel in math and science • champion Washington schools attaining the national average of state financial support.

Keep Mary Bass’ experience, compassion and integrity working for all of Seattle’s children.

Occupation: Retired after 32 years of working for Seattle Public Schools.

Education: BA Educational Leadership, now completing Master’s Degree in Education Administration from Antioch University.

There are few who understand the challenges of today’s classroom as well as Betty Patu. She has been the trusted friend and professional to whom families, students and administrators have turned to keep kids in school and graduating.

Many at-risk students now come back to school to graduate with their diplomas, thanks to Betty.

Proven Experience
Betty worked tirelessly to create after-school tutoring programs for students, recruiting highly-qualified University students to tutor. She created individual programs to help student’s make-up failing credits and successfully directed award-winning programs to close the achievement gap, grow the number of college-bound students and reduce gang violence.

Proven Leadership
Betty has served as a program administrator and community leader for Seattle Public Schools. She has learned how to find creative solutions for tough budget decisions without compromising her high standards for students. Board membership includes: Asian Counseling Referral Services, Rainier Beach Community Empowerment Coalition, Rainier Beach Foundation, Parent Teachers, Students Association and Founder, Islanders Children & Youth Services.

Proven Results
Betty’s efforts have directly increased graduation rates, lowered drop-out rates, and increased family and school partnerships. Her work has won her local and national acclaim: Big Sister “Role Model” Award; Women’s Funding Alliance, “Dorothy Bullitt” Award; Asian Counseling Referral Services “Community” Award; Alliance for Education, A+ Excellence in Education Award; International Examiner, “Community Voice” Award; Rainier Beach Community Empowerment Coalition “2007 RB” Award, and Sen. Our community is a beautiful place to live and I feel privileged to be able to call the Highline area my home. As a parent and community advocate, I have been working to better the lives of our children, and that is why I have decided to run for Highline School Board.

I envision a school district that works toward creating a world-class education system and provides our children with the tools needed to be successful in the 21st century. My priorities on the Highline School Board will include:

* Academic success for all children regardless of their ethnic and social background
* Bridge the gap between early learning and the school system. We should be converting that potential into reality
* Educational leadership at the school level.

I am running for reelection for another 4 years on the School Board. My son attended Hilltop, Chinook and Tyee. I have seen a change for the better in these schools as the District has focused on increased academic rigor and community partnerships. I will continue to advocate for a budget that prioritizes student centered, individualized, rigorous academics.

I believe that technology can be used to change how students are taught. I support maximizing the use of the web and email to improve communication between students, parents and teachers. Education needs to change with the times and I believe Highline has begun to make those changes. I plan to make the most of my next four years on the School Board helping to make Highline one of the top-notch school districts in the country delivering a 21st century education that enables all students to achieve their dreams and potential.

I strongly favor the traditional, direct instruction of math over discovery learning (new math). If elected I will lead the effort to ensure Renton schools adopt the traditional approach. We must do more to ensure our children can compete in a high tech global economy. A strong math and science education is vital to accomplishing this.

I believe a strong education is the greatest gift we can give our children and our community as a whole. I have a long term, vested interest in Renton schools as the first of my three children starts kindergarten next year, beginning our family’s 17 year journey through Renton schools.

It has been an honor and privilege to serve our community’s children on the Tukwila School Board for 14 years.
You can be proud of the district’s work these past four years: Responsible management of the budget, and retention of almost all staff during an economically challenging time; Providing a safe and supportive environment for student learning; Implementing District initiatives to systemically address staff professional development needs and technology access issues, and embed the use of data to increase student achievement; Successful refinancing of bonds – saving our taxpayers over $300,000; Continued expansion of our after school programs - providing positive activities in that critical time period; and passage of a four-year levy and three-year staff contracts - creating a stable environment for teaching and learning.

Our Board and Superintendents team will maintain our focus on student needs and how to best address them. Our children deserve nothing less.

First and foremost I am a proud Wife and a Mother. Both of my children attend Tukwila School District, and over the years I have spent many hours volunteering at our local schools. I’ve listened to our educators about their needs and concerns, and how that affects our children. I want to make sure that decisions made are right. We must give them proper educational foundation to ensure they have every opportunity to be successful. I believe in the system but I also understand that we must adapt to the ever changing world of new technology and different teaching methods. I want to ensure that our district has a balance for those students who need extra help, as well as those children who are highly gifted. I will work diligently to ensure that the board, the schools, the community and the parents are all in partnership to achieve this goal.

The fire district will lose almost 20 percent of its operating revenue for 2010 because of property valuation reductions. It now faces the loss of a substantial portion of the district, and the related revenues, by annexation to Burien. As a result, the fire district can no longer afford its excessive management and administration costs. The solution for saving effective services is for the district to consolidate its operations and place management of the service with Fire District No. 2 in Burien. The district is at the maximum of its allowable taxing authority and district officials have not taken actions necessary to improve revenues for 2010. Strong policy direction and effective financial management leadership is needed now to reverse this unacceptable condition. I have extensive fire service policy and financial management experience and can bring badly needed improvements to the district. I need your support to accomplish this. Say no to business as usual. Thank you.
Chris Elwell

For the past six years it has been both an honor and a privilege to serve the citizens of Burien and Normandy Park as one of your elected Fire Commissioners. Over those six years we have accomplished many important things. While maintaining fiscal responsibility, we have enhanced our level of service, improved and updated our equipment and increased the training for our personnel.

As we look to the future, we will be faced with the challenges of constructing new fire stations, serving a larger population, and experiencing higher call volumes all with tighter budgets. We are ready and prepared to face those challenges.

I am proud to have earned the support and endorsement of your firefighters (IAFF Local 1461), and I ask for your support and vote as well.

Skyway has been my home since 1986. I have served as a volunteer firefighter for nine years and as one of your Fire Commissioners since August 2002.

Thanks to your support, we have completed our station remodel and training center, replaced aging equipment and modernized our communication systems. Our training program is well regarded among other Fire Departments.

Your Fire Department is staffed by the most dedicated professionals (both Career and Volunteer) that I have ever known. They serve you 24/7: emergency responses, disaster preparedness and community education. As commissioner I will continue working with them to efficiently deliver these services.

Our community continues to face many challenges. Your Fire Department is one tool to help meet these challenges. I ask for your vote on Election Day.

Occupation: Owner of Tony’s Market

It has been my honor to serve as your commissioner the past six years, and I ask for your vote in this election. When I took office I promised ratepayers I would bring respectability back to our district after a period of chaos and discord. Working with my fellow commissioners we achieved that goal by treating employees fairly and honestly, and giving them the tools necessary to efficiently operate our facilities. As a third generation businessman in the community and operator of Tony’s Market, I bring business sense to the table. I understand that the commissioner’s role is to create the proper balance between moving forward with necessary upgrades while keeping rates affordable for our ratepayers. Ignoring our aging infrastructure is irresponsible, and I am proud of the line rehabilitation program initiated during my first term, which has been achieved while keeping our rates among the lowest in the region.

As a customer for over 35 years, I want to ensure that the Valley View Sewer District continues to maintain its excellent reputation as a well-run district that delivers value to its customers. For that reason I have chosen to run for Sewer Commissioner.

Over the last 25 years, I’ve worked hard to improve my community. I’m a teacher, a community leader, and neighborhood activist. As a longtime Tukwila City Councilmember, my job was to ask tough questions and demand real answers about critical project and financial decisions. As a former Chair of the Tukwila City Council’s Utility Committee I provided oversight and policy direction for the City’s sewer utility.

As your sewer Commissioner, I promise to ensure that the Valley View continues to offer low rates while also making the prudent and necessary investments required to maintain and upgrade the system. I ask for your vote.

As a longtime resident of this community and your Commissioner for the last 12 years, I understand regional water and sewer issues and how they affect us all. I consistently work to balance water quality and availability with the lowest possible cost to the consumer. I am currently a member of the Cascade Water Alliance (CWA) Board of Directors and am President of the Skyway Water & Sewer Board of Commissioners. I have the knowledge and experience needed to continue serving your interests in the years to come. Thank you for your vote.

Carolyn V. Parnell

Occupation: Educator & Author

YEARS OF COMMUNITY SERVICE IN HEALTH CARE AND EDUCATION, through various Councils and Boards such as the Renton Youth and Family Service, Secretary of your Hospital District Commission, etc. resulted in Carolyn Parnell’s nomination for Renton’s Citizen of the Year. Along with Commissioner Mike Miller, Carolyn believes Access to Quality Health Care is a Right for everyone… Establishing 12 neighborhood clinics while expanding Emergency and Urgent Care reflect their commitment to Accessible Healthcare.

CAROLYN’S COMPASSION AND COMPETENCE DEFINE HER CHARACTER AND SUCCESS. As Secretary of the Hospital Commission, she partnered with Commissioner Mike Miller to champion a new Birth Center, LEVEL III TRAUMA (ER), Joint Center, Breast Center, and GoldenCare for seniors. Carolyn’s devotion to people has translated into Valley Medical being the only Hospital recognized as Washington’s Best 100 Places to Work - while ranking #35 among all hospitals nationally!

Through Carolyn’s practical oversight and common sense the District received citations for merit from the State Auditor for 7 straight years…An unprecedented distinction among all Public Hospital Districts! RE-ELECT CAROLYN PARNELL – The candidate that has collaborated successfully with Commissioner Miller and others to get results!

Commissioner Position No. 4 (nonpartisan office • 6-year term)

Valley Medical Center continues to provide quality medical care, advanced emergency services and state of the art medical technology including Robotic Assisted Surgery, World Class Joint Replacement and Children’s Health Care because of the work of dedicated citizens like Commissioner Mike Miller.

His experience and oversight as Vice President of the Hospital Board is obvious. A new Birth Center, expanded Level III Trauma ER in a new seven story tower and 12 neighborhood clinics are all evidence that Mike Miller is willing to make bold decisions and gets things done!

An active leader and experienced businessman, Mike remains committed to clinical quality, cost containment and responsible stewardship of resources.

And that is why Mike is supported by Renton Mayor Denis Law, Kent Mayor Suzette Cooke, Covington Mayor Margaret Harto and County Councilperson Julia Patterson. He is endorsed by hundreds of nurses and every major medical group at Valley, three current hospital board members, all nine retired board members and the Volunteers in Action at Valley. He has the bi-partisan support of Senator Margarita Prentice and former Senator Steve Johnson, Fire Chiefs Jim Schneider and Lee Wheeler (retired), the Renton Chamber of Commerce, and Firefighters Local 1747. Please Re-Elect Mike Miller.

As a physician, I’ve devoted my life to helping patients get the best health care possible. Now, I’d like to serve you on the Valley Medical Center Commission. I would be the only medical professional on the Board, and I could help ensure quality care.

Protecting Taxpayers

As a taxpayer, I will put a stop to the unnecessary tax increases and wasteful spending.

Holding Government Accountable

Valley Medical Center provides excellent medical care, but behind the scenes, there are problems. In 2007, Valley was forced to pay the largest fines in state history for two illegal campaigns to raise taxes and expand their taxing area. Taxes have shot up by 600% and money is being wasted daily.

My opponent sat on the Commission and approved all this activity. It’s time to make Valley administration healthy again.

Born and Raised in King County

My wife and I live in Kent with our beautiful daughter. I want to bring positive changes to Valley; good staff morale can promote better patient health. If we are open with the community, we can restore trust.

If you want open and honest governance, I would appreciate your vote.
King County Charter Amendment No. 1
Repeal of Section 350.20.30 and Portions of Article 9 – Transitory Provisions

Shall those no longer relevant portions of King County Charter Article 9 relating to the county’s prior transition to a home rule charter and King County Charter Section 350.20.30, relating to the county’s transition to a metropolitan form of government, be repealed, as provided in Ordinance No. 16484?

☐ YES
☐ NO

Statement for

When the King County Charter was first enacted, the mechanics of moving seamlessly to a new form of government was a major concern. Article 9 of the Charter, entitled “Transitory Provisions,” by its own terms is “related to the transition from the existing form of government to the form of government established by this charter.” In 1992, the County government merged with Metro and Charter section 350.20.30 was added to deal with the merger process. As Charter government has been in place for almost 40 years and the Metro merger is complete, these provisions are virtually all obsolete.

Removing obsolete material from the Charter makes the document clearer and more understandable to the public as well as less expensive to print and distribute. Citizens, including historians and other researchers, will retain archival access to the deleted material. The 2007-2008 Charter Review Commission, on which we each served, supported this amendment without dissent. We urge voters to support this essentially housekeeping measure.

When it comes to a “constitution” such as the King County Charter, flexibility, including the freedom to adapt to changing times and circumstances, is critical. This is especially true with respect to tools used to monitor and control expenditures. Charter Section 475 addresses the fiscal control issue by means of a system of quarterly allotments and other devices. These devices were crafted to work with a budget control system that no longer exists. This Charter Amendment frees up present and future elected officials to enact by ordinance systems of fiscal control that are responsive to contemporary needs and which build upon modern budget monitoring methods without unnecessary Charter restraints.

Both Executive and Council staffs agree that allotments are cumbersome, outdated and add nothing to effective fiscal control. Moreover, the recently convened King County Financial Policies Advisory Task Force recommended that the allotment provision be removed from the Charter. The 2007-2008 Charter Review Commission, on which we each served, concurred without dissent. We urge voters to support this needed fiscal reform.

Explanatory Statement

Section 475 of the King County Charter requires all county agencies, except the county council, to present work programs and requested allotments to the county executive to control expenditures and prevent deficits. It also contains provisions regarding the transfer of appropriations by the executive and the council. Section 475 was originally adopted in 1969 and since the budget processes that are referred to in Section 475 are no longer used, the section has become obsolete.

At the request of the county executive and the county council, the King County Charter Review Commission recommended repeal of Section 475. If approved, this charter amendment would repeal Section 475.

The repeal of Section 475 is not intended to affect existing legislation or to limit the power of the council to adopt legislation regarding the matters addressed in Section 475.
There are two provisions in the current Charter which speak to the formation and appointment of individuals to serve as commissioners. Section 340.40 stipulates that appointments by the county executive are subject to confirmation by a majority of the county council. Section 800 likewise states that the county executive is responsible to appoint a commission, but does not mention any need for confirmation by the County Council.

These discrepancies led to some disagreement and confusion. It was the unanimous recommendation of this Commission to amend the Charter so as to establish a clear appointment process.

Once seated, the Charter Review Commission deliberates for over a year on current needs and changing concerns within the charter that have developed over the previous ten years. It then makes recommendations for changes to the County Council. The second part of this Amendment requires the Council to respond publicly to these recommendations and to decide at an open public meeting how to proceed on the commission’s recommended charter amendments.

For the foregoing reasons, we urge you to vote yes to amend Section 800 so as to ensure that appointees to future Charter Review Commissions are confirmed by a majority vote of the County Council, and that the findings and recommendations of future Commissions are considered in an open public meeting.

Explanatory Statement

Section 800 of the King County Charter sets forth a process for review and amendment of the charter. Pursuant to this section, at least every ten years, the county executive appoints a citizen commission of at least 15 members to review the charter and submit a report to the county council recommending amendments, if any, that should be made to the charter. If Charter Amendment No. 2 is adopted, it would clarify that the executive’s appointees to the charter commission are subject to confirmation by the council. The amendment would also require the council to consider the commission’s report and recommendations and to decide at an open public meeting how to proceed on the commission’s recommended charter amendments.

Vote “Yes!” for the Open Space Preservation Act. It amends the King County Charter to enhance protection for over 156,000 acres of land already owned or held in a conservation easement by King County.

These irreplaceable properties include treasures such as Cougar and Taylor Mountains, forests, wetlands, rivers, wildlife, and salmon habitat. They are truly special places, whether to walk, bike, bird watch, or simply enjoy their beauty from a distance. With high conservation and resource values, they are also working forests, preserving jobs and nearby natural riches.

The amendment requires no new land to be purchased and involves no direct costs – the properties are already publicly owned. The amendment strengthens protection against the sale or transfer of these properties by requiring a 28-day public comment period, finding of facts, and a supermajority vote (7 of 9) of the County Council before any change in property status can occur.

The Open Space Preservation Act is unanimously supported by the County Council, Executive, environmental groups and community leaders. Check the website for a complete list. It provides strong protection to our most cherished green spaces through a defined public process and leaves a legacy for future generations to enjoy.

Explanatory Statement

King County has acquired interests in a number of open space properties in the form of fee simple ownership, conservation easements, and development rights. If approved, Charter Amendment No. 4 would provide enhanced protection of certain open space properties deemed by the county to have high conservation value. The county would not be permitted to convey or relinquish its interest in these properties or to authorize them to be used in a manner that was not permissible at the time the county acquired its property interest, except under certain circumstances as outlined in Charter Amendment No. 4.

The initial inventory of high conservation value properties would be established by an ordinance that is approved by a minimum of seven affirmative votes of the nine-member council. Additions to or removal of properties on the list would be by ordinance and would require seven affirmative votes of the council, specific findings of fact supporting the modification, a public hearing, and reasonable effort by the council to consult with the executive regarding the modification. An ordinance removing a property from the list would have to include certain findings of fact as set forth in Charter Amendment No. 4. Seven affirmative votes of the council would be required to override an executive veto of an ordinance establishing the initial inventory or modifying the inventory.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF KING COUNTY:

SECTION 1. There shall be submitted to the voters of King County for their approval and ratification or rejection, at the next general election to be held in this county occurring more than forty-five days after the enactment of this ordinance, an amendment to Section 800 of the King County Charter as set forth herein:

Section 800 Charter Review and Amendments.

At least every ten years after the adoption of this charter, the county executive shall appoint a citizen commission of not less than fifteen members whose mandate shall be to review the charter and present, or cause to be presented, to the county council a written report recommending those amendments, if any, which should be made to the charter. Appointees shall be subject to confirmation by a majority of the county council. This citizen commission shall be composed of at least one representative from each of the county council districts. The county council shall consider the commission’s report and recommendations and decide at an open public meeting how to proceed on each of the commission’s recommended charter amendments, as provided by ordinance.

The county council may propose amendments to this charter by enacting an ordinance to submit a proposed amendment to the voters of the county at the next general election occurring more than forty-five days after the enactment of the ordinance. An ordinance proposing an amendment to the charter shall not be subject to the veto power of the county executive. Publication of a proposed amendment and notice of its submission to the voters of the county shall be made in accordance with the state constitution and general law. If the proposed amendment is approved by a majority of the voters voting on the issue, it shall become effective ten days after the results of the election are certified unless a later date is specified in the amendment.

King County Charter Amendment No. 4
Ordinance 16600

Proposed No. 2009-0245.2  Sponsors Ferguson, Phillips, Hague, Patterson, Constantine, Dunn and Lambert

AN ORDINANCE proposing an amendment to the King County Charter; providing enhanced protection for certain high conservation value properties that are designated by a supermajority vote of the council, by prohibiting the county from conveying or relinquishing its interest in those properties or authorizing their expanded use, except in specified circumstances; adding a new Section 897 to the King County Charter, and submitting the same to the voters of the county for their ratification or rejection at the November 2009 general election.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF KING COUNTY:

SECTION 1. Findings:

A. King County has acquired interests in open space properties in the form of fee simple ownership, conservation easements and development rights. The county has done so using funds from various funding sources, including conservation futures taxes, Forward Thrust, real estate excise taxes, surface water management fees, the river improvement fund, the salmon recovery funding board, the interagency committee for outdoor recreation, voter-approved open space bond funds and state and federal conservation-oriented grants.

B. The primary purposes of acquiring open space properties are to conserve, preserve, protect, or enhance natural or scenic resources, timberland devoted primarily to the growth and harvest of timber for commercial purposes, streams, rivers, wetlands, soils, beaches, tidal marshes, fish or wildlife habitat, water quality, passive recreational opportunities, visual quality along highway, road and street corridors, and scenic vistas for current and future generations of King County residents.

C. Preserving the character of open space properties also reduces urban sprawl, provides natural corridors in urban areas, and serves to mitigate the effects of human activities that contribute to climate change.

D. The county council wishes to provide enhanced protection of certain high conservation value, open space properties that King County currently owns, or in which the county owns a conservation easement or... development rights, without increasing current restrictions on the use of those properties or requiring the county to purchase additional properties.

E. An effective means of providing enhanced protection is to require approval by a county council supermajority of at least seven affirmative votes (out of nine councilmembers) before the county may transfer or relinquish its interest in those properties or authorize their expanded use beyond what was permissible when the county acquired them, except in specified circumstances, and before properties are added to, or removed from, the inventory of protected properties.

SECTION 2. There shall be submitted to the voters of King County for their approval and ratification or rejection, at the next general election to be held in this county occurring more than forty-five days after the enactment of this ordinance, the addition of a new Section 897 to the King County Charter to read as follows:

Section 897. High Conservation Value Properties.
The county council may, by a minimum of seven affirmative votes, adopt an ordinance establishing an inventory of those high conservation value properties that are to be preserved under the terms of this section. Such an ordinance may be adopted before, on, or after the effective date of this section. The inventory shall include only properties in which the county has a real property interest. The inventory may not be modified by the addition or removal of a property except by an ordinance adopted by a minimum of seven affirmative votes and including specific findings of fact supporting the modification. An ordinance removing a property from the inventory shall include findings of fact that one or more of the following factors exist: (1) the property no longer provides the open space values initially contemplated, for specific reasons set forth in the ordinance; (2) maintaining the property in public ownership is no longer practical, for specific reasons set forth in the ordinance; or (3) open space values will be enhanced by substituting the property interest for another property interest. At least twenty-eight days after the introduction of a proposed ordinance modifying the inventory, except an emergency ordinance, and prior to its adoption, the county council shall hold a public hearing after due notice to consider the proposed ordinance. Before the county council adopts an ordinance modifying the inventory, the chair or other designee of the county council shall make a reasonable effort to consult with the county executive about the modification. Seven affirmative votes are required to override the veto of an ordinance establishing or modifying the inventory following the effective date of this section.

The county shall not convey or relinquish its interest in an inventoried property or authorize an inventoried property to be converted to a use that was not permissible when the county acquired its interest, as evidenced by deed, easement, covenant, contract or funding source requirements, except that this section shall not prevent: the conveyance of the county’s interest in an inventoried property to another government or to a non-profit nature conservancy corporation or association as defined in RCW 84.34.250, as currently adopted or hereafter amended; the conveyance of the county’s interest in an inventoried property under the lawful threat or exercise of eminent domain; the grant of an easement, license, franchise or use agreement for utilities or other activities compatible with use restrictions in place when the county acquired its interest; or the use of an inventoried property for habitat restoration, flood control, low-impact public amenities or regionally significant public facilities developed for purposes related to the conservation values of the property, road or utility projects or emergency projects necessary to protect public health, welfare or safety. This section shall not affect any contractual obligations entered into as part of the county’s acquisition of an interest in an inventoried property.

SECTION 2. The clerk of the council shall certify the proposition to the county elections director, in substantially the following form, with such additions, deletions or modifications as may be required by the prosecuting attorney:

Shall the King County Charter be amended to add a new Section 897 that provides enhanced protection for certain high conservation value county properties that are designated by a supermajority vote of the council, by prohibiting the county from conveying or relinquishing its interest in those properties or authorizing their expanded use beyond what was permissible when the county acquired them, except in specified circumstances?

Transportation Benefit District No. 1

Proposition No. 1

Vehicle License Fee

The Board of Transportation Benefit District No. 1 passed Resolution No. 1 concerning this proposition for transportation improvement funding. The Transportation Benefit District was created by the City of Burien through City Ordinance No. 516 to provide funding for two transportation improvements described in the City Ordinance. This proposition would authorize the Transportation Benefit District to impose an annual vehicle license fee of twenty-five dollars within the District for the sole purpose of funding the costs of the bicycle and pedestrian improvements described in Exhibit A to the City Ordinance. Shall the vehicle license fee be authorized?

- YES
- NO

Explanatory Statement

In July of 2009, the City of Burien enacted City Ordinance No. 516 authorizing the creation of Transportation Benefit District No. 1 within the boundaries of the City of Burien. The District was created to provide funding for two high-priority projects from the Burien Pedestrian and Bicycle Facilities Plan. The 8th Avenue South project is intended to provide for construction of a minimum 8-foot wide multi-purpose facility from S. 128th Street to S. 136th Street to provide a safer connection to Cedarhurst Elementary School and a future connection to the City of Burien Northeast Redevelopment Area. The Southwest and South 136th Street project is intended to provide bicycle lanes, repair existing sidewalks, and connect community facilities from Ambaum Boulevard to 1st Avenue South and from 1st Avenue South to Des Moines Memorial Drive. If the voters approve this measure, the District will be authorized to impose an annual vehicle license fee in the amount of twenty-five dollars ($25) to be collected upon renewal of the vehicle registration of non-exempt motor vehicles that are registered in the District. The State Department of Licensing will begin collection of the vehicle license fee six months after voter approval and all amounts collected, less administrative expenses not to exceed one percent, will be remitted to the State Treasurer and disbursed to the District monthly. The vehicle fee will be used exclusively to fund the costs of the two voter-approved projects and will terminate when the financing is completed and paid.

Statement for

As part of an ongoing effort to make Burien a great community, over 400 residents participated in a public process to identify primary routes that connect residential neighborhoods with parks, schools, and downtown. The result, the Bicycle and Pedestrian Facilities Master Plan, acknowledged our serious need for more sidewalks and bike lanes and prioritized projects to improve Burien residents’ ability to get around town safely.

Now we have the opportunity to move forward on the most critical projects. These projects will improve east-west connectivity within Burien, support local businesses by making them easier to access on bike and on foot, promote physical activity, and establish safe routes to school.

The cost of these improvements is less than seven cents a day. For less than the price of a single tank of gas per year for the next two years, you can help build a diverse transportation system—whether you drive, ride the bus, bike, or walk. Improving our bicycle and pedestrian infrastructure will improve Burien’s livability, air quality, community health, and economic vitality.

Statement against

Burien surveyed 404 people in 2008; the majority did not mention the need for more sidewalks and bike paths. Only 20% of the respondents to the 2008 Burien Community Survey suggested the improvement of walkways and paths/bike lanes. East of Ambaum (the proposed projects areas), only 13% of the respondents suggested these improvements.

The actual cost of the projects is unknown; the vehicle fees will continue until projects are paid for. Fees may not end in two years. All citizens will use these improvements and should pay for them. In most cities, homes getting new sidewalks for the first time are assessed a sidewalk fee.

None of the proposed projects is critical; this is the city’s wish list at the expense of the resident vehicle owners. There is money in the current budget to cover critical sidewalk repairs.

Burien is the second highest property taxed city in King County. It did a $20 million property tax give away to the Town Square condos. It asked for a $25 million bond for a new fire station. A $35 million Community Center tax will be coming. Currently Burien has a possible $4 million shortfall. Burien needs to live within its existing revenue.

Rebuttal of statement against

Burien’s property tax rate is 19th out of 39 King County cities, not 2nd. That will not change.

The projects’ cost is known—estimated between $850,000 and $1,050,000. The vehicle license fee would raise about $1,200,000 in two years, more than enough to complete both projects.

7 cents a day is worth it to give kids safe routes to school, to improve Burien’s community health, and to get cars off our roads and highways.

Rebuttal of statement for

The 2004 Citizen Master Plan group always planned that sidewalks and bike lanes would be funded by general tax dollars; not by new imposed vehicle taxes. These improvements only affect Burien’s eastside. Newly annexed citizens will not be required to pay vehicle fees. Pro-statement Endorsers should be Burien residents who are willing to be taxed. Burien is in serious financial problems and is just creating new taxes rather than rethinking its spending priorities.
