2. The boundaries of said use districts shall be determined and defined from time to time by the adoption of sectional area district maps covering portions of King County, showing the geographical area and location of said sectional areas, each of which said sectional area district maps shall be, upon their final adoption, a part of the official Master Plan of said County.
3. Each sectional area district map showing the classifications and boundaries of use districts within it, after its final adoption in the manner required by law, shall be and become a part of this resolution and said map and all notations, references and other information shown thereon shall thereafter be as much a part of this resolution as if all the matters and information set forth by said map were fully described herein.
4. When uncertainty exists as to the boundaries of any use districts shown on said sectional area district maps, the following rules shall apply: (a) Where such boundaries are indicated as approximately following street and alley lines or lot lines, such lines shall be construed to be such boundaries. (b) In unsubdivided property and where district boundary divides a lot, the location of such boundaries, unless the same are indicated by dimensions, shall be determined by use of the scale appearing on such sectional area district map. (c) In case any uncertainty exists, the Planning Commission shall recommend and the Board shall determine the location of boundaries. (d) Where a public street or alley is officially vacated or abandoned, the regulations applicable to abutting property shall apply to such vacated or abandoned street or alley.
5. The boundaries of such use districts as are shown upon any sectional area district map adopted by this resolution or amendments thereto, are hereby adopted and approved and the regulations of this resolution governing the uses of land, buildings and structures, the height of buildings and structures, the sizes of yards about buildings and structures and other matters as herein set forth are hereby

(B) BUILDING SITE AREA REQUIRED: Except as provided in Section 21 (p. 23-1), the minimum building site area for each dwelling shall be forty-eight hundred (4800) square feet.

SECTION 20. GENERAL PROVISIONS.

The following regulations shall be subject to the following exceptions:

(A) USES:

1. Kindergartens and schools to and including the eighth grade, are permitted in any use district, provided, in Residence and Suburban Use Districts, sixty-five (65) percent of the building site area is devoted to open spaces and in an addition thereto there be provided a piece or parcel of land not less than one-fourth (1/4) of an acre in area abutting or adjacent and in one unit to be devoted exclusively to playfield purposes and the necessary accessory buildings; and provided further, that the main building and playfield shall each be considered as a unit governed by the front yard and rear yard requirements for the districts in which they are located, and by a side yard requirement for playfields that side yards shall each have a width of twenty-five (25) feet.

2. Churches, eleemosynary institutions, schools of a grade higher than the eighth, and any educational institution and those of a similar character, if located in the Residence and Suburban Use Districts, shall have sixty-five (65) percent of their building site area devoted to open spaces and the front yard, rear yard, and side yard requirements shall be the same as provided herein for the kind of use district in which they are located.

3. In the Suburban and Agriculture Use Districts, temporary stands for the sale of products grown or produced on the premises shall be permitted as accessory uses, provided the applicant for permit to erect such stands agrees to remove same on or before the expiration of the one month period from the date of permit, and to have no signs greater than two by three (2 x 3) feet, and not more than two such signs. The erection of said stand shall be governed by the set-back regulations of the use districts in which they are located.

4. The following accessory uses, in addition to those hereinbefore mentioned, shall be permitted in any district, provided, that such accessory uses do not alter the character of the premises in respect to their use for the purpose permitted in such respective districts:

(a) The operation of necessary facilities and equipment in connection with schools, colleges, universities, hospitals, and other institutions permitted in the respective districts.

(b) News and refreshment stands in connection with passenger stations.

(c) Recreation, refreshment and service buildings in public parks, playgrounds and golf courses, by use, any public hearing.

(d) Real estate offices of a temporary character when built according to plans and in locations approved by the Planning Commission for a period of not exceeding one (1) year subject to extension by the Planning Commission.

(B) HEIGHT:

1. Turrets, gables, spires, penthouses, scene; lofts, cupolas, water tanks, silos, artificial windmills, windmills, and similar structures and necessary mechanical appurtenances may be built and used to a greater height than the limit established for the district in which structures are located, provided, however, that no structure in excess of the allowable building height shall be used for sleeping or eating purposes or for any commercial purpose other than such as may be incidental to the permitted uses of the main building.

2. Where the average slope of a lot is greater than one (1) foot rise or fall in seven (7) feet, from the established street elevation of the property line, an additional story will be permitted on the front hillside of any building.

(C) AREA:

1. Any lot shown upon an official subdivision map duly approved and recorded, or any lot assessed as an individual lot or shown on an unrecorded plat, or any lot for which a deed is of record in the office of the County Auditor of King County, or any lot for which a contract of sale is in full force and effect at the time this resolution becomes effective, may be used as a building site.

2. Hereafter in the Residence, Suburban, and Agriculture Use Districts the minimum building site area for any one- or two-family dwelling shall be forty-eight hundred (4800) square feet or less, except as provided in Section 21 (p. 23 - 1 f), but any and all building sites shall have a minimum width of forty (40) feet and shall have 65% of their area devoted to open spaces.

In the Residence, Suburban, and Agriculture Use Districts front yards shall be not less than twenty (20) feet in depth measured from the existing or proposed street or highway line as shown upon the official highway maps.

In the Business, Commercial, Manufacturing, Industrial, and Unclassified Use Districts the front yard shall be not less than fifteen (15) feet.

Where the official highway map shows the future width greater than the dedicated width, then the front yard shall be measured from the margin of the future highway right-of-way. The front yard shall be measured from the street line abutting the narrowest dimensions of the lot.

6. Side yards in Residence, Suburban, and Agriculture Use Districts shall be not less than five (5) feet in width, but in case of a corner lot in said districts any side yard abutting any street shall be not less than ten (10) feet in width.

7. Except as provided in Section 21 (p. 23 - 1 f), each side yard in Residence, Suburban, and Agriculture Use Districts shall have a minimum width of five (5) feet, and each side yard shall be increased by two and one-half (2 1/2) feet for each additional story above two, but in no case required to have more than ten (10) feet.

8. No building or structure shall be erected closer than fifteen (15) feet to any abutters street line in the Business, Commercial, Manufacturing, Industrial and Unclassified Use Districts; and in no case in these districts closer than forty-five (45) feet to the center line of the abutting street or streets.

9. The rear yards in Residence, Suburban, and Agriculture Use Districts shall be not less than twenty-five (25) feet in depth, and no building or structure therein shall be erected closer than ten (10) feet to any abutting street.

10. In computing the depth of a rear yard from any building where such yard opens an alley or public park, one-hundredth (1/100) of the width of such alley or park may be deemed to be a portion of the rear yard.

11. A detached accessory building not exceeding one (1) story in height may occupy not more than fifty (50%) of the area of the rear yard, and shall not be closer than five (5) feet to the main building wherever situated.

12. Detached accessory buildings in Residence, Suburban, and Agriculture Use Districts shall conform to the front and side yard regulations pertaining to main buildings in the above Use Districts; provided, however, that where the slope of the front half of the lot is greater than one (1) foot rise or fall in eight (8) feet, and that of the rear half is one (1) foot rise in seven (7) feet the maximum height of said structure shall extend into said restricted area, and whenever the said rise or fall is greater than one (1) foot in seven (7) feet, said elevation shall be reduced to the level of the property lines abutting any street, provided that no part of a movable extension of the structure shall extend into said restricted area.

13. Porches, terraces, and outside stairways unroofed, unenclosed, above and below floor or steps shall not project more than three (3) feet into any rear or side yard.

SECTION 21. SPECIAL PROVISIONS.

1. Lots for dwelling purposes only, for seasonal and recreational use, may have areas less than forty-eight hundred (4800) square feet when located in a subdivision, provided that the property line at the front property line, or where the elevation of the front half of the lot is more than four (4) feet above or below the established street elevation at said property line, and that the rear property line, or the elevation of the street, is not more than sixty (60) feet from the property lines abutting any street, provided that no part of a movable extension of the structure shall extend into said restricted area, and whenever the said rise or fall is greater than one (1) foot in seven (7) feet, said elevation shall be reduced to the level of the property lines abutting any street, provided that no part of a movable extension of the structure shall extend into said restricted area.

2. To allow specified types of uses and buildings in the Suburban and Residence Districts, the use regulations of such districts, under conditions which will preserve the integrity and character of the district, the utility and value of adjacent property and the general welfare of the neighborhood, such conditions being specifically as follows:

(a) Residential hotels, upon condition that, (1) the building site contain not more than ten (10) acres, (2) building coverage not to exceed thirty-five (35) percent of the area of the site, (3) fifty percent (50%) or more of the guest rooms to be detached in detached buildings, and (4) all buildings and plots plans to be approved by the Planning Commission.

(b) Public utility buildings, transformers and structures, upon condition that all plans be approved by the Planning Commission.
(d) Private stables, upon condition that the location and building plans will have approval of the Planning Commission, but the number of animals, not including stock, on any single private stable location shall not exceed one (1) for every two thousand (2000) square feet contained in the area of the building site on which such buildings is or shall be located, and no re-occupation of such a building to which they pertain shall be permitted, provided that the cubic contents of the building as it existed at the time of its location shall not again be re-occupied except by a conforming use.

(e) Cemeteries, Mausoleums and crematories, upon condition that the area of any individual cemetery shall not be more than eighty (80) acres and shall be governed by front and side yard regulations of the use district in which located.

(f) Churches, museums and libraries, upon condition that plot plans be submitted to and approved by the Planning Commission.

(g) Schools, colleges, public playgrounds and athletic fields, upon condition that:

(1) an area adequate, in the judgment of the Planning Commission, be provided to reduce or prevent any possibility of injury to adjoining residential properties, and

(2) plot plans be approved by the Planning Commission.

(h) Airplane landing fields for private use, upon condition that the location and all plans be approved by the Planning Commission.

(i) High voltage power transmission lines, upon condition that the location and all plans be approved by the Planning Commission before purchase of rights-of-way.

(j) Commercial dairies, having a herd of more than five (5) cows, provided that no feeding pens, milking sheds and other buildings or structures designed or used for confinement of the herd be located closer than five hundred (500) feet to any occupied dwelling except such as may be located upon the premises.

3. To permit the reconstruction and/or remodeling of a non-conforming building in accordance with plans and specifications approved by the Planning Commission, in the judgment of said Commission, such reconstruction and/or remodeling will, in the matter of front, side, and rear yards, structural character, and exterior appearances of said building, make said non-conforming building more in conformity with its surroundings and bring it and its subsequent uses into fairer conformity with its surroundings.

Whenever at least fifty percent (50%) of all the property fronting on one side of a street between two intersecting streets is improved with buildings, the majority of all of the buildings in said area have a front yard less than twenty (20) feet, then, no new building on any interior lot shall be required to have a greater front yard than the average of twenty (20) feet. The yard regulations governing corner lots, whether the street is paved or not, must be followed out.

5. Houseboats and watercraft used for habitation or commercial amusement shall not be moored or located within any established, outer harbor line or between the shore line and the high water mark and the line of navigability along piers, streets, or bodies of water, and no closer than two hundred fifty (250) feet to the shore line or water mark. Cremating, keeping of any swine or goats or the keeping or housing of more than three (3) dogs, exclusive of unneutered puppies, on any building site in a Residence Use District is prohibited.

6. Residence Use Districts outhouses for use as privies or lavatory conveniences in the building to which they pertain and must consist of a chemical toilet or installed plumbing properly connected with and drained into a covered septic tank, cesspool, or closed sewer.

SECTION 22. NON-CONFORMING USES.

1. The lawful use of land, at the time of the passage of this resolution, except in Residence, Suburban, Agriculture, Forest, Forestry, Forestry Recreational, and Watershed Use Districts, although such use does not conform to the provisions hereof, may be continued, but if such non-conforming use is discontinued at any future of such land shall be used and non-conforming building and more healthful and bring it and its subsequent uses into fairer conformity with its surroundings.

2. The lawful use of land, if connected as a business unit with the lawful use of a building on the same building site in Residence, Suburban, and Agriculture Use Districts, although such use does not conform to the provisions hereof, may be continued for the term of one (1) year only from and after the time of the passage of this resolution.

3. The lawful use of a building except advertising structures or advertising devices on accessory buildings existing at the time of the passage of this resolution may be continued, although such use does not conform to the provisions hereof, and such use may be extended throughout the building to the provisions of this resolution, provided such use is not extended.

4. No building building designed, arranged or intended for or devoted to a use not permitted under the regulations of this resolution or for such district in which such building or premises is located shall be extended, reconstructed, or structurally altered unless such use is changed to a use permitted under the regulations specified by this resolution for such district in which such building is located; provided, however, that work done in any period of twelve months or ordinary structural alterations, replacements of walls, fixtures or plumbing not exceeding twenty-five percent (25%) of the assessed value of the building according to the assessment made therein, shall be permitted, provided that the cubic contents of the building shall not increase or be re-occupied except by a conforming use.

5. Any building remaining vacant for a continuous period of more than one (1) year shall not again be re-occupied except by a conforming use.
7. The non-conforming use of a fractional part of a building or lot shall not be extended to occupy a greater part of the building or lot than that occupied at the time this resolution shall become effective, except that a non-conforming use may be extended to fill any portion of a building which was arranged or designed for such non-conforming use at the time of the passage of this resolution.

8. In Residence, Suburban, and Agriculture Use Districts any non-conforming use not continued shall be discontinued within a period of one (1) year from the date this resolution shall become effective.

9. The King County Planning Commission may issue permits for a period of not more than one year for the erection and use of any non-conforming use, and any permit issued by said Commission shall be final.

10. The foregoing provisions shall also apply to non-conforming uses in districts hereafter changed.

11. In every case in which, under the provisions of any resolution of King County, or any statute in effect at the time this resolution takes effect, a license or permit is required for the maintenance of any structure or the establishment and/or conducting of any business use, and any structure or business use exists as a non-conforming use under the provisions of this resolution, then no such license or permit shall be issued, renewed, re-issued, or extended for said business use unless and until a use and occupancy permit shall first have been secured for the continued maintenance of said structure or use.

SECTION 25. INTERPRETATION, PURPOSE AND CONFLICT.

In interpreting and applying the provisions of this resolution, they shall be held to be the minimum requirements for the promotion of the public safety, health, convenience, comfort, prosperity or general welfare. It is not intended by this resolution, or any other provision hereof, to nullify any existing ordinance, or other agreements between parties, provided, however, that where this resolution imposes a greater restriction upon the use of buildings or land or upon height of buildings, or requires the erection of a physically other regulation or that other buildings or buildings or by easements, covenants or agreements, the provisions of this resolution shall govern.

SECTION 24. FILING OF PLOT PLANS.

1. In all cases where Area District Maps, showing use districts, have been adopted for any portion of the County, before constructing any building or structure, or altering, reconstructing, or relocating thereof in which a change in cubic size or design for a different purpose occurs and for the purpose of enabling the Planning Commission to keep a proper record thereof, the owner or agent of the property involved, shall, in writing his name, post office address, the legal description and general location of his property or the property he represents, and make duplicate drawings or sketches showing a plot plan of the building or structure on said site, the location of the proposed building or structure on said site, giving the proposed location of said building or structure on said site, the size and the use to which it is to be put. In case of advertising devices or signs, duplicate drawings or sketches, showing the proposed size, lettering and location on the ground plans shall be filed with the Planning Commission.

The above information, drawings or sketches shall be filed with the Planning Commission, which body shall acknowledge receipt thereof by returning one, copy, stamped and dated, to the address indicated by the owner or agent of the property.

Then the owner or agent may proceed with the construction, being responsible for the proper observance of all rules and regulations provided in this resolution.

2. Any violation of the provisions of this section shall not be construed as granting a permit for any purpose, but are for the prevention of errors in construction or interpretation of this Districting Resolution and for providing County records.

The intent of the above provisions is to protect adjoining property values, or the investment or public funds spent in the construction of highways, or the general welfare inherent in an orderly and decent treatment of the scenery of the State of Washington, by insuring the location of buildings in good taste, proper proportion, and in harmony with their surroundings, and to secure the best and most appropriate use of land.

SECTION 23. INTERPRETATION, PURPOSE, AND CONFLICT.

1. The Planning Commission shall, as rapidly as is, in its judgment feasible, proceed with the more precise classification of the unincorporated territory of King County, in accordance with the provisions of the statutes of the State of Washington, and with the best interests of the public welfare and with the best interests of King County, and in harmony with the laws and regulations of the State of Washington, and in the manner directed by such statutes.

SECTION 26. AMENDMENTS AND CHANGES OF DISTRICT BOUNDARIES.

1. Any land or building desires a reclassification of his property he shall present to the Board a petition duly signed and acknowledged by his or her agent a petition which shall be referred to the Planning Commission for a hearing on such amendments, extensions or additions to the districting plan, and such other matters as may be related to said petition.

2. Said Planning Commission shall cause to be held an investigation of the matters involved in such petition, and if in the opinion of said Commission, after due investigation and consideration of the facts stated in such petition and any complete facts involving the property in question and other property in the vicinity thereof, the Planning Commission believes that such change of district or exception is necessary for the preservation and enjoyment of any substantial property right of the petitioner and not materially detrimental to the public welfare or the property rights of persons located in the vicinity thereof, the said Planning Commission shall transmit to the Board a report recommending that such petition be granted. If such report is not made to said Board within thirty (30) days from the filing of such petition the failure to make such report shall be deemed to be a disapproval of such petition by said Commission.

3. If said Commission after such investigation and consideration disapproves such petition, said Commission shall cause to be mailed to such petitioner a post card notifying the petitioner of such disapproval and any unapproved petition shall be final unless the petitioner, within thirty (30) days after the date of mailing such post card notice, the expiration of thirty (30) days from the filing of such petition, during which said Commission shall have failed to take action thereon, appeal to said Board by filing with the Clerk of said Board a written notice of such appeal.

4. If upon receiving such report or notice of appeal, said Board deems it necessary or expedient so to do, it may set the matter for hearing upon such notice to interested parties, as it may deem proper, and said Board may by resolution, after hearing, follow the recommendation of the Planning Commission if said Board is satisfied from its consideration of said petition and the matters relative thereto that such a change of district or exception is necessary for the preservation and enjoyment of such property right or rights of the petitioners and is not materially detrimental to the public health or injurious to the property in the vicinity.

5. Whenever any reclassification of property, any amendments, supplements or changes of regulations, or any amendment or amendments to any map or maps which are a part of this resolution, are initiated by the Board or Planning Commission, the right to make and take which said initiative proceedings are hereby reserved to said Board or Planning Commission and authorized to be made and taken by either of them, the hearings provided herein for a property review and map amendment shall be held in the manner provided for in this section, and such reclassification or property amendments, supplements, or changes of regulations or amendment or amendments of such maps or maps may be made upon the recommendation by either one if concurred in by the other.

SECTION 27. VALIDITY.

1. If any section, paragraph, subsection, clause or phrase of this resolution is for any reason held to be unconstitutional or invalid, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portion of this resolution. The Board hereby declares that they would have passed this resolution and each section, paragraph, subsection, clause or phrase thereof irrespective of the fact that any one or more sections, paragraphs, clauses or phrases be unconstitutional or invalid.

SECTION 28. ENFORCEMENT

All resolutions of King County, inconsistent herewith to the extent of such inconsistency, and no further, are hereby repealed.

ADOPTED AND PASSED this 2nd day of June 1937.
