WASHINGTON STATE GUIDELINES TO HELP energize your meetings
Everyone has been to an event where they can hardly keep their eyes open after lunch. If you are planning an event, you want to make sure your participants are energized and productive. By offering access to healthy foods and physical activity you will

- help attendees get the most out of the event
- support their overall health
- help reduce their risk for chronic disease and obesity, and
- model healthy behaviors.

Are you ready to make the healthy choice the easy choice at your meetings and events? Take a look at this guide developed by Washington State Department of Health. You’ll find food and beverage standards to strive toward and physical activity suggestions to help you energize your meetings.

Energize your meetings: Food and Beverage Standards

One Star | ★

- Follow your organization’s existing policies and procedures
- Provide a tobacco free environment
- Remember food safety standards when serving food
  - Wash hands before serving foods—ineffective hand washing is a leading cause of foodborne disease
  - Keep hot foods hot and cold foods cold

Two Stars | ★ ★

- Meet the One Star Standard
- Ensure that having food at the event is necessary
- Give participants an opportunity to inform you of dietary needs or restrictions before the event (see sample registration question and food ideas on the Recommended Food Choices sheet)
- Take cultural food needs into account
  - Serve foods that are culturally appropriate for the event attendees
  - Serve pork products separately from other food products
  - Serve meat products on a separate dish from non meat products
  - Provide a vegetarian entrée option at meals
