Reassignment	Not addressed.	Not addressed.	King County offers a Reassignment Program to assist employees unable to continue in their jobs due to medical reasons. The program provides participants up to six months of priority for rehire into non-promotional King County jobs that they are qualified to perform. You are entitled to the services of this program when it is determined that you are unable to continue in your present job but are able to work in another capacity. Please note that former employees eligible for the Reassignment Program must submit medical, work history and job application materials within one year of their termination date.  PER 22-4-2 (AEP)	Reassignment : If an employee can no longer perform the essential functions of his/her position and there is a vacant position he/she is qualified to fill, he/she is eligible for that position, absent undue hardship.  EEOC Enforcement Guidance – reasonable accommodations and undue hardship under the ADA (10/17/2002).	The following applies to non-promotional positions: If the employee cannot perform his/her job but there is an open position that the employee is qualified for, the employer must take affirmative steps to help the employee transfer. To receive these services, the employee has a duty to cooperate with the employer in this process.  Clarke v. Shoreline School District, 106 Wn. 2d 102 720 p.2d 793(1986)  Dean v.
