

Voluntary Short Term Disability (STD) Insurance

Short Term Disability insurance pays a weekly benefit in the event you cannot work because of a covered illness or injury. An STD benefit replaces a portion of your weekly income, providing funds directly to you to help pay your bills and living expenses. Standard Insurance Company (The Standard) has developed this document to provide you with information about the optional coverage you may select through King County

Eligibility Requirements

Policy Effective Date January 1, 2019

Employee

- A regular employee of King County who is working an Employer approved half-time schedule or more and classified as follows:
 - Regular Full-time;
 - Part-Time;
 - Provisional;
 - Probationary; or
 - Term-limited Temporary;
- Actively working at least the minimum hours each week required by your Employer; and
- A citizen or resident of the United States or Canada.
- The following are not eligible: employees eligible for the Affordable Care Act benefit program, Law Library Staff, employees represented by Amalgamated Transit Union Local 587, union employees of Technical Employees Association – Department of Transportation (TEA-DOT), deputy sheriffs (employees represented by the King County Police Officers Guild) and employees represented by the Puget Sound Police Managers Association (PSPMA), staff employees or elected union officers of Amalgamated Transit Union Local 587, temporary or seasonal employees (other than Term-limited Temporary), contract labor, leased employees, independent contractors, full-time members of the armed forces of any country.

Premium

- You pay 100 percent of the premium for this coverage through easy payroll deduction

Benefit Amount and Duration

Benefit Percentage Your weekly STD benefit is 60 percent of the first $2,500 of your weekly insured predisability earnings, reduced by deductible income

Plan Maximum Weekly Benefit $1,500

Plan Minimum Weekly Benefit $15

Maximum Benefit Period 76 days. However, STD Benefits will end on the date Long Term Disability benefits become payable to you under a group plan provided by your employer, even if that occurs before the 76 days.

Employee Coverage Effective Date

To become insured, you must satisfy the eligibility requirements listed above, serve an eligibility waiting period, and be actively at work (able to perform all normal duties of your job) on the day before the scheduled effective date of insurance. If you are not actively at work on the day before the scheduled effective date of insurance, your insurance will not become effective until the day after you complete one full day of active work as an eligible employee.

Please contact your human resources representative for more information regarding the requirements that must be satisfied for your insurance to become effective.

Understanding Your Plan Design

Benefit Waiting Period

If your claim for STD Benefits is approved by The Standard, benefits become payable after you have served continuously the applicable days noted below for your disability and you remain disabled. Benefits are not payable during the benefit waiting period.

Accidental Injury	After 14 days
Physical disease, pregnancy or mental disorder*	After 14 days

Note: If you do not apply for this STD coverage within 31 days of becoming eligible, were eligible for insurance under the Prior Plan for more than 31 days but were not insured, or if your insurance ends because you failed to make a required premium contribution and is later reinstated, your benefit waiting period for physical disease, pregnancy or mental disorder will be 60 days if you become disabled during the first 12 months after your coverage takes effect.

Definition of Disability

You will be considered disabled if, as a result of physical disease, injury, pregnancy or mental disorder:

- You are unable to perform with reasonable continuity the material duties of your own occupation, and
- You suffer a loss of at least 20 percent in your predisability earnings when working in your own occupation
- You are not disabled merely because your right to perform your own occupation is restricted, including a restriction or loss of license.

Deductible Income

Deductible income is income you receive or are eligible to receive while STD benefits are payable. Deductible income includes, but is not limited to:

- Amounts under any workers' compensation law or similar law
- Amounts under an unemployment compensation law
- Amounts because of your disability under any other group insurance
- Disability or retirement benefits under your employer's retirement plan
- Amounts under any state disability income benefit law or similar law
- Earnings from work activity while you are disabled, plus the earnings you could receive if you worked as much as your disability allows
- Earnings or compensation included in your predisability earnings which you receive or are eligible to receive while STD benefits are payable
- Amounts due from or on behalf of a third party because of your disability, whether by judgment, settlement or other method
- Any amount you receive by compromise, settlement or other method as a result of a claim for any of the above

Additional Features

Please see your human resources representative for additional information about the features and benefits below.

24 Hour Coverage

24-hour STD plans provide coverage for disabilities occurring on or off the job.

Rehabilitation Plan	If you are participating in an approved Rehabilitation Plan, The Standard may include payment of some of the expenses you incur in connection with the plan including but not limited to; training and education expenses, family (child and elder) care expenses, job related expenses and job search expenses.
Reasonable Accommodation Expense Benefit	If your employer makes an approved work-site modification that enables you to return to work while disabled, The Standard will reimburse your employer up to a pre-approved amount for some or all of the cost of the modification.

Exclusions

You are not covered for a disability caused or contributed to by any of the following:

- Your committing or attempting to commit an assault or felony, or your active participation in a violent disorder or riot
- An intentionally self-inflicted injury
- War or any act of war (declared or undeclared, and any substantial armed conflict between organized forces of a military nature)
- The loss of your professional or occupational license or certification

Limitations

STD benefits are not payable for any period when you are:

- Not under the ongoing care of a physician in the appropriate specialty as determined by The Standard
- Not participating in good faith in a plan, program or course of medical treatment or vocational training or education approved by The Standard, unless your disability prevents you from participating
- Confined for any reason in a penal or correctional institution
- Able to work and earn at least 20 percent of your predisability earnings in your own occupation, but you elect not to work
- Receiving sick-leave pay, annual or personal leave pay, or other salary continuation including donated amounts from your employer

When Benefits End

STD benefits end automatically on the earliest of:

- The date you are no longer disabled
- The date your maximum benefit period ends
- The date you die
- The date benefits become payable under any other disability insurance plan under which you become insured through employment during a period of temporary recovery
- The date you fail to provide proof of continued disability and entitlement to benefits
- If applicable, the date long term disability benefits become payable to you under a long term disability plan

When Insurance Ends

Insurance ends automatically on the earliest of the following:

- The date the last period ends for which a premium was paid
- The last day of the calendar month in which your employment terminates
- The date the group policy terminates
- The last day of the calendar month in which you cease to meet the eligibility requirements (insurance may continue for limited periods under certain circumstances)

Group Insurance Certificate

If coverage becomes effective, and you become insured, you will receive a group insurance certificate containing a detailed description of the insurance coverage including the definitions, exclusions, limitations, reductions and terminating events. The controlling provisions will be in the group policy. Neither the information presented in this summary nor the certificate modifies the group policy or the insurance coverage in any way.
