

WaterWorks Grant Program

Sound investments in clean water and community

King County

Department of Natural Resources and Parks
Wastewater Treatment Division

Presented to the

Metropolitan
Water Pollution
Abatement Advisory Committee

August 2, 2018

Goal: Improve
water quality in the WTD
service area

Additional Goals

- Community involvement
- Stewardship
- Leverage resources

2015-2018, WaterWorks has awarded:

$7.7 M for 105
Projects

green stormwater
infrastructure
(raingardens & cisterns)

education &
community engagement

research & monitoring

stream &
river bank
restoration

Thornton Creek Alliance— Promoting Stewardship in the Thornton Creek Watershed

research &
monitoring

education &
community
engagement

Seattle Public Utilities—

Implementing In-Stream Methodology for Detecting Sewage Flow into Receiving Waters

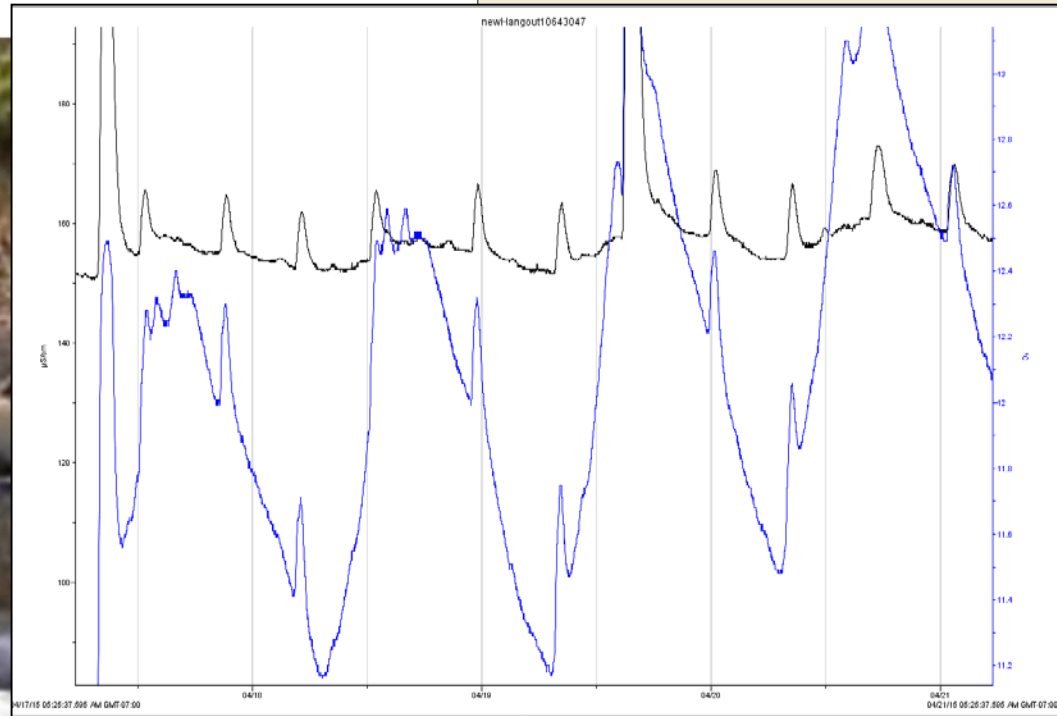

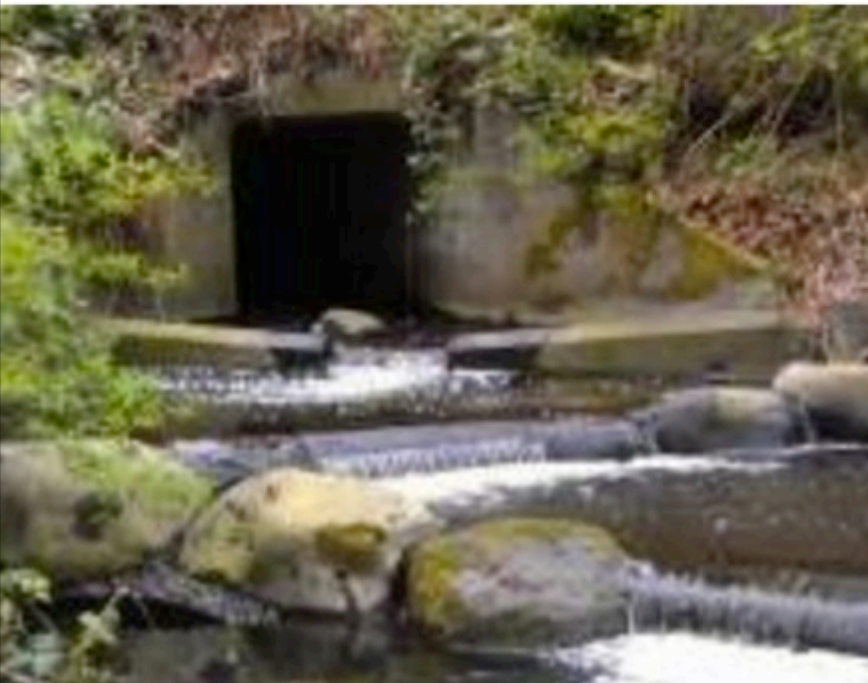

research &
monitoring

MYNorthwest

Tests show unacceptable levels of bacteria, human waste in North Seattle creek

BY KIRO RADIO STAFF
JUNE 14, 2013 AT 9:31 AM

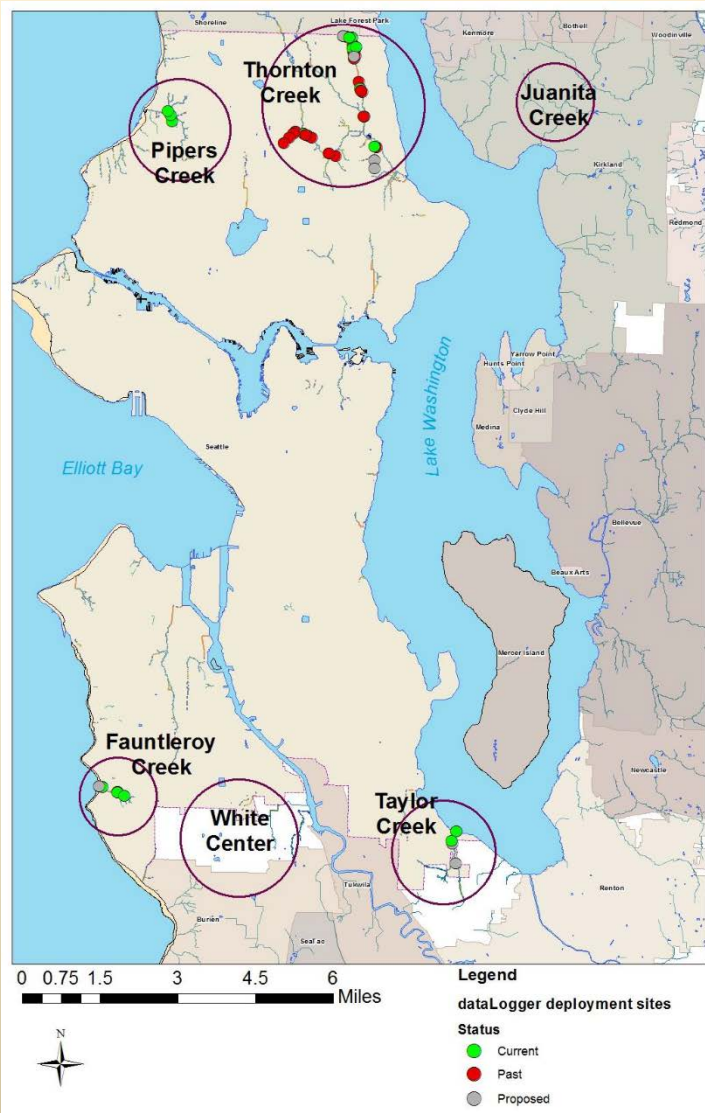

Seattle Public Utilities—

Implementing In-Stream Methodology for Detecting Sewage Flow into Receiving Waters

research &
monitoring

World Relief—

Hillside Paradise Parking Plots Community Garden I & II

Video link: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Pk3VKw5Fp88>

green stormwater
infrastructure
(raingardens & cisterns)

education &
community
engagement

Tilth Alliance—Soil and Water Stewardship Training Program

Drip irrigation at Discovery Elementary, Sammamish

green stormwater
infrastructure
(raingardens & cisterns)

stream &
river bank
restoration

Wetland buffer
maintenance,
Auburn

Restoration, KCHA Casa Juanita, Kirkland

Sustainability Ambassadors— 6th graders present at Green Duwamish Watershed Summit, Auburn

UW Green Futures Research and Design Lab

Duwamish Floating Wetlands

United Indians of All Tribes— Labateyah Native Water Stewards

green stormwater
infrastructure
(raingardens & cisterns)

education &
community
engagement

What's Next: next grant cycle early 2019

WaterWorks Grant Program

Sound investments in clean water and community

King County

Department of Natural Resources and Parks
Wastewater Treatment Division

Questions?

Elizabeth Loudon, 206-477-4297 elizabeth.loudon@kingcounty.gov
www.kingcounty.gov/waterworks-grants