Confidentiality

The identity of an employee who reports improper governmental action is protected unless that employee consents in writing to have his or her identity revealed. This confidentiality protection does not apply, however, to employees who are alleging whistleblower retaliation because in order to conduct an investigation it is usually necessary to reveal the identity of the person claiming retaliation.

If you have concerns about having your identity revealed, please let us know and we will work with you to address those concerns to the extent possible.
