Do you have a concern or complaint about King County services?

We are here to help.
We are the Ombudsman’s Office.

An independent agency of the Metropolitan King County Council
King County is a big organization and it can be difficult to know where to go if you have a problem with a county service or believe the county has acted wrongly. When you contact our office, we will use our understanding of government and relationships within the county to help you find a solution.

The Ombudsman’s Office is an independent office within King County government that responds to citizen concerns in an impartial, efficient and timely manner. We also investigate allegations of fraud, waste, abuse, and ethics violations, to ensure that county services are being provided fairly.

You can reach us by telephone, email, or in-person.

King County Ombudsman’s Office
516 Third Avenue, Room W 1039
Seattle, WA 98104
1-206-447-1050
Ombudsman@kingcounty.gov

Alternate formats available upon request